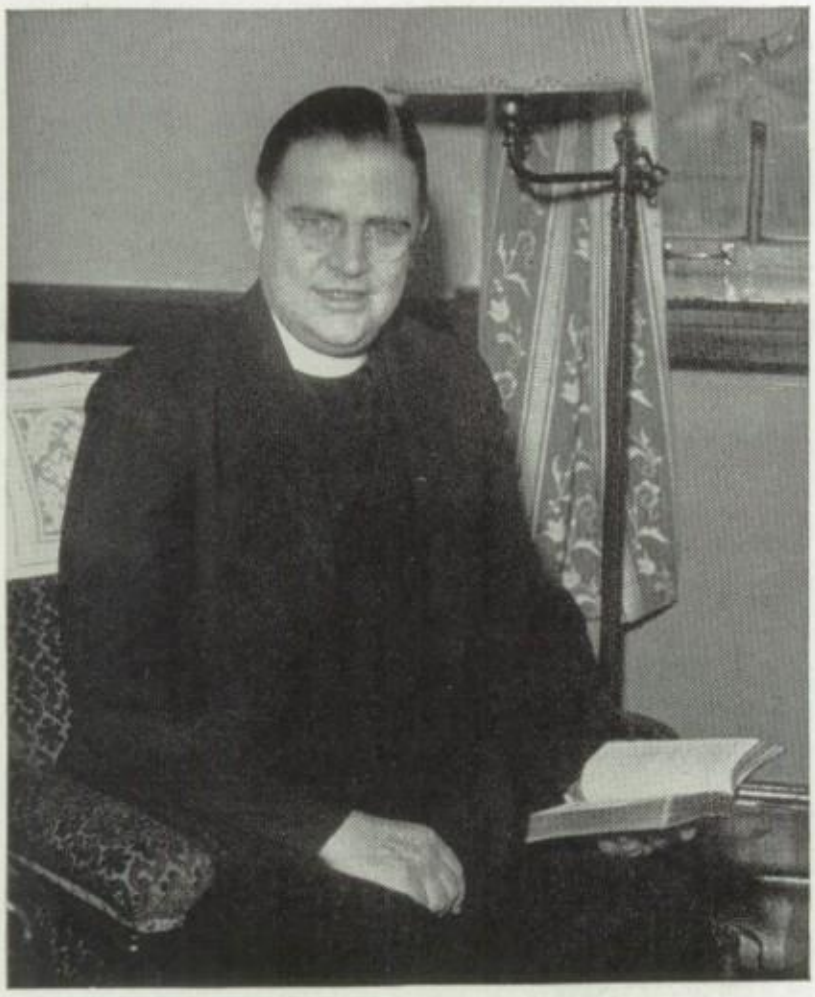
Father Doherty
6-9-41



THE REVEREND HOWARD J. DOHERTY

Chaplain

No stranger was Father Doherty when he arrived at Mercy to take up his duties as chaplain. As he walked our halls, his "Hello" was that of one among friends. To those he had not known he was a stranger but a day, for Father took up immediately the ways of Mercy so that he soon became a familiar and loved figure among us. We have a faint recollection of having heard the word "temporary" in connection with his appointment, but we are trusting in the flexibility of its meaning. He is our chaplain now and we look askance upon a Mercy without him. Father Doherty is here to stay—at least in our hearts.

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE MOST REVEREND SAMUEL A. STRITCH, D.D.

Archbishop of Chicago

As students eagerly taking advantage of the thousand educational opportunities offered us, it seldom occurs to us that there is someone responsible for them. So we now carry our gratitude through the ranks of those to whom we are indebted—our parents, teachers, the clergy, to the one who governs and gives all—our beloved Archbishop.

Graduation Day. A great day for Doris Henrietta. A day of remembrance of her days at Mercy.

Senior class officers—Rose Capodice, board member; Janet Kenneley, financial secretary; Eileen Kennedy, treasurer; Lorraine Carlson, recording secretary; Geraldine King, vice president; Bette Collins, president; Patricia Desmond, board member; Gertrude Mary Koehl, board member; Mary Virginia Meade, board member; Anna Marie Dignan, board member; Betty Jane Winblad, board member. Not in picture is Dorothy Pasierb, social chairman.

HELEN ALLEN — St. Clotilde

Sodality; Reparation guild; Dramatic Art, vice president; Mercian staff; Hi Rays staff; M.A.A.

"Beth" . . . that coquette impishly has a version of the English language translated only by those "who know" . . . knits sweaters, scarves, and mittens by the minute . . . dimples flash winningly at the psychological moment.

CATHERINE ALTENBACH — St. John's, Lima, Ohio

Sodality; Glee club; Library club, treasurer.

A comfortable humor . . . knowledge of treasures of the past gained from her intimate friendship with books . . . one of a winsome three who delights in seeing the other two in the limelight.

ELLEN ANDERSON

Sodality; M.C.C.; Student Council.

Has a quiet personality that must be coaxed out of her . . . first on the scene of any excitement, but never takes an active part in it . . . a charming child of Mary.

BETTY BALLARD — Park Manor

Honor student; Sodality; Dramatic Art; Hi Rays staff; Le Cercle Francais.

For grace and elegance, we'd give her reel one in any movie . . . maintains a day-in-day-out sweetness . . . one of our generous catechism teachers.

CLEON BARANA — St. Dorothy

Sodality; Glee club; Dramatic Art; Library club; M.C.C.; M.A.A.

Wholesomely gay . . changes her mischievous school girl personality only to portray character roles on our stage . . . principles that tyrannize over her fancies.

DOROTHY ANN BARCLAY — Kohen

Sodality; Civic club.

Agreeableness her trait . . . sees every task complete before she leaves it . . . kindly courteous . . . deep toned, clear, pure, and true voice.

1941

CLARA BARTOSZ — St. Michael

Sodality; M.C.C.

Chemist's colors suggested by her clothes . . . delightful by day, dramatic by night . . . disarmingly feminine . . . infinite in her variety of interests.

LILLIAN BASS — St. Clotilde

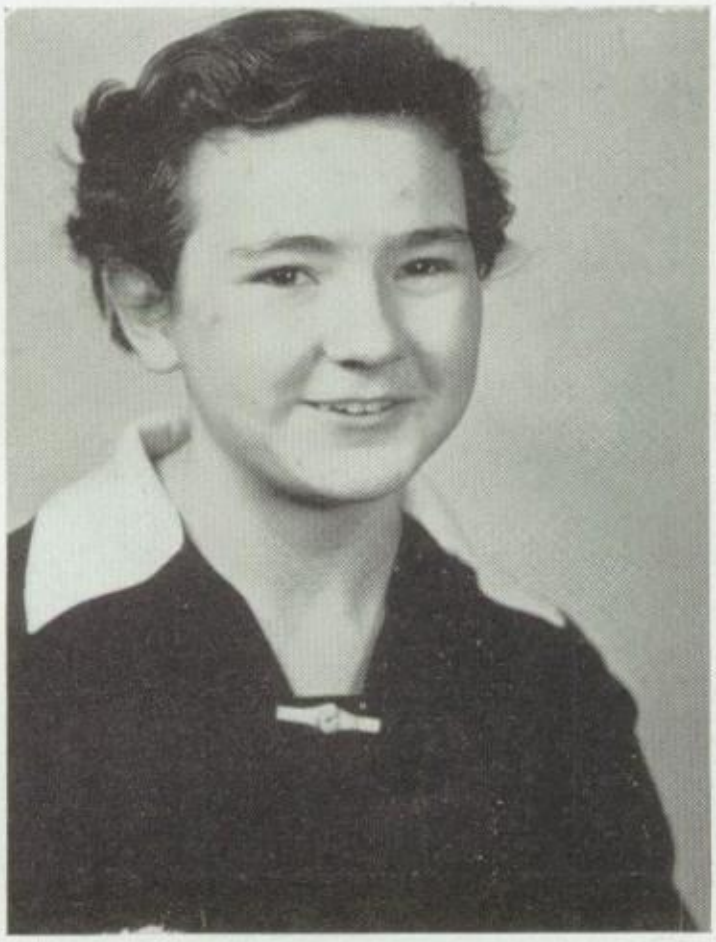
IN MEMORIAM

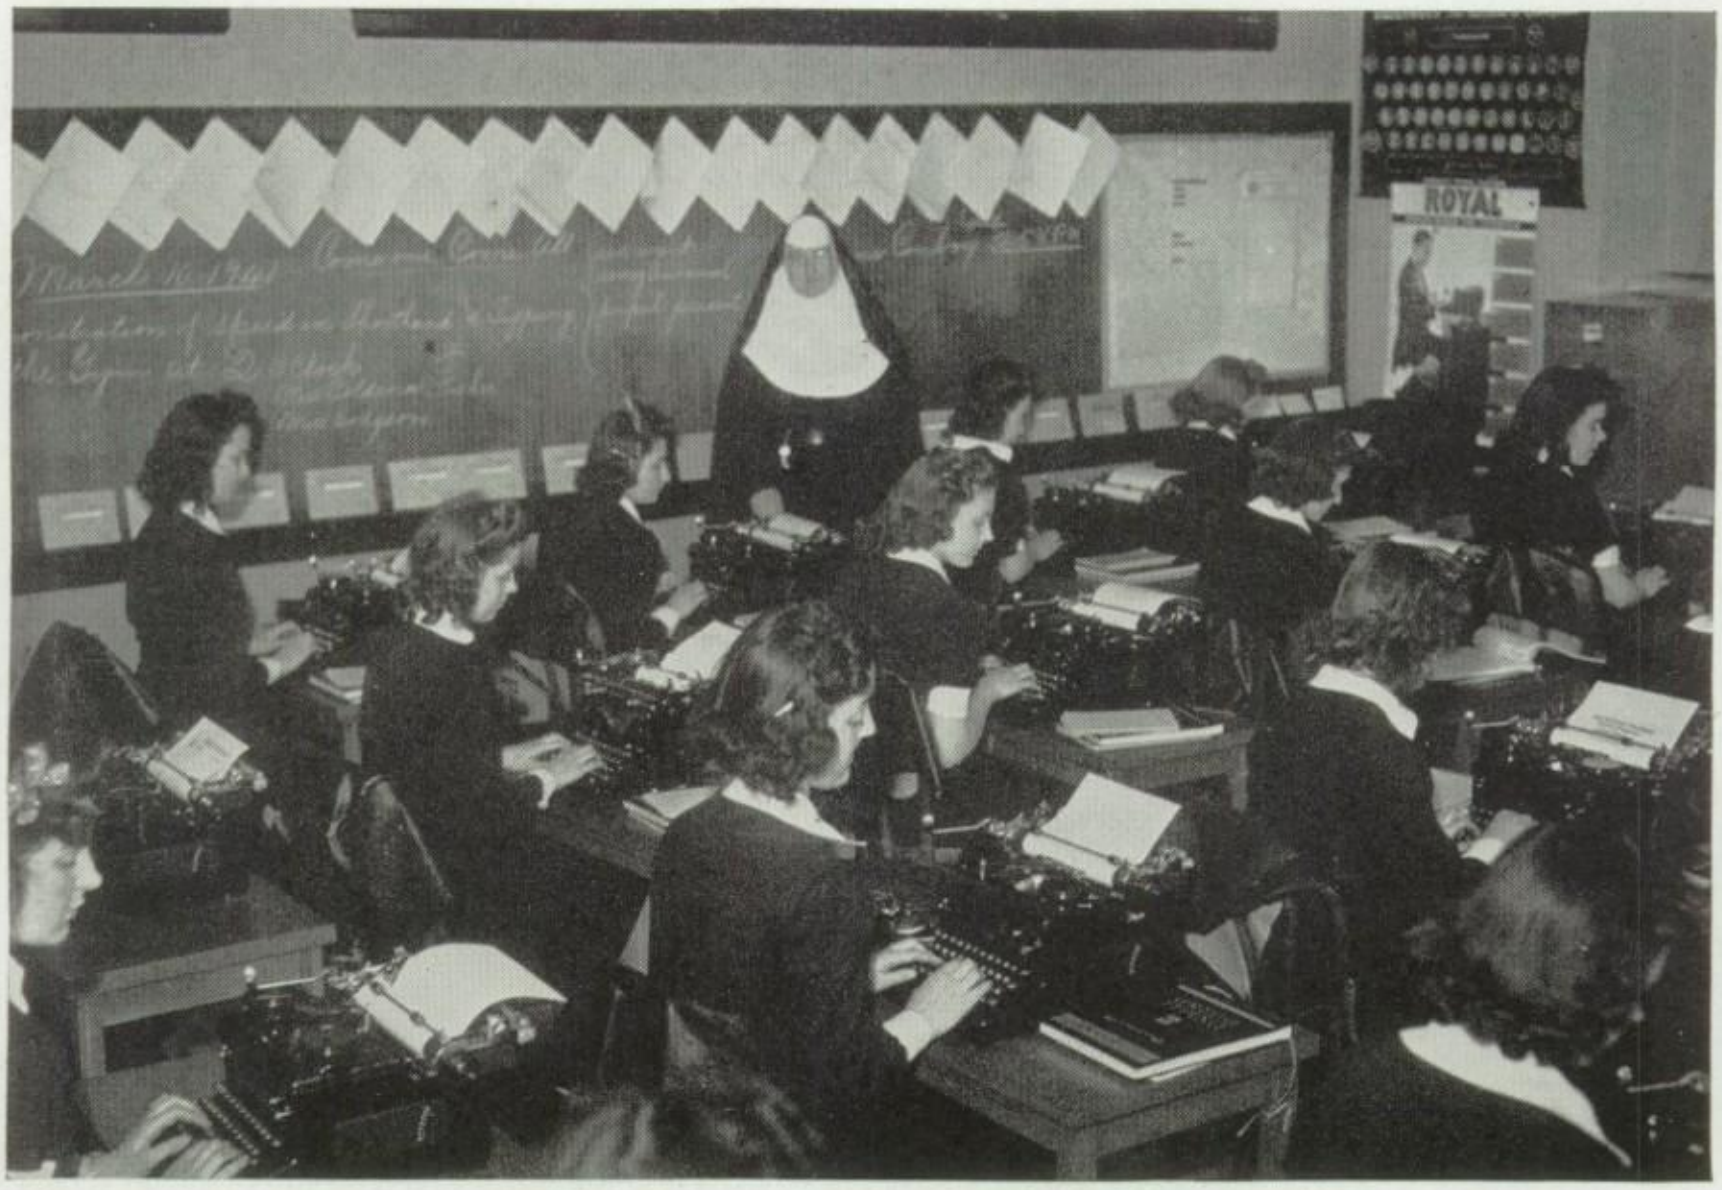


ANNE HEEREY
Died May 28, 1939

When we Seniors first came to Mercy we were new and strange in a newer and stranger world. We were unfamiliar even with one another, for individuals had not as yet become class personalities. It was in that first year that one of us became a "schooliversal" character. Her keen intellect, her active participation in sports, her musical renditions on the sweet potato, the way she mixed slang with the best of English, her caricatures of everybody and anybody on the blackboard, her dislike of anything the least bit sentimental in dramatics—all these became as much a part of Mercy as she did. She stood out among us, and we knew it.

But what we didn't know was how much we would miss her. We didn't know that until we were become sophs, and God called her home. It was when she left us, never to return, that over us came the full realization of her friendliness and her comradeship. Then we knew we loved Anne. We knew we loved her because she was "just Anne," but, oh, so different!

Now that we're grown-up Seniors, we know in our hearts that we're still pretty much the same little girls, and we know, too, that we're venturing into a much stranger world than Mercy could ever be. But we're not really afraid, for in heaven there's a Mercy girl, who will watch over us, intercede for us, and go on loving us until we meet her again.



IT'S ALL BUSINESS

Rows and rows of typewriters and typists! Sister Mary Brendan instructs in the fundamentals and professional touches of a business career.

As Sister dictates, shorthand characters are rapidly taken down and translated by these secretaries-to-be.

ROOM 1

Officers—Marian McNamara, president; Mary Lou Quinn, vice-president; Virginia Michalski, treasurer; Geraldine Kelleher, secretary.

Top row—Patsy Allman, Virginia Baczynski, Rita Brennan, Pat Coates, Laverne Collins, Rita Croake, Anna Duffin, Elaine Earsman, Margaret Mary Fleming. Second row—Elinora Hasik, Frances Hughes, Helen Keho, Dorothy King, Adeline Kosmala, Gertrude Kulovits, Doris Lane, Peggy Loftus, Joan Lynch. Third row—Helen Madigan, Eleanor Maloney, Betty Murray, Catherine Mus, Claire Nolan, Alvina Petrus. Fourth row—Frances Rochowiak, Jean Simpson, Ethel Soti, Colette Tittiger, Gerry Woulfe.

Present day history is quite complex, but modern history students, Mary Lou, Virginia, Frances, and Peggy, with the aid of a globe—and Sister Mary Leonore — unravel intricacies by studying past world conditions.

Officers—Eileen O'Connor, president; Kathy Flynn, vice president; Jean Doyle, treasurer; Shirley Drexler, secretary.

With pencils poised on papers, creative writers realize that "music hath charms" and they await inspiration. Kathy and La Verne take care of the music while Sister Mary Evelyn lends a helping word where it is needed.

Best wishes Sister Mary Regis

Officers—Margery Dahm, president; Lorraine O'Kane, vice president; Bonnie Richmond, secretary; Margaret Russell, treasurer.

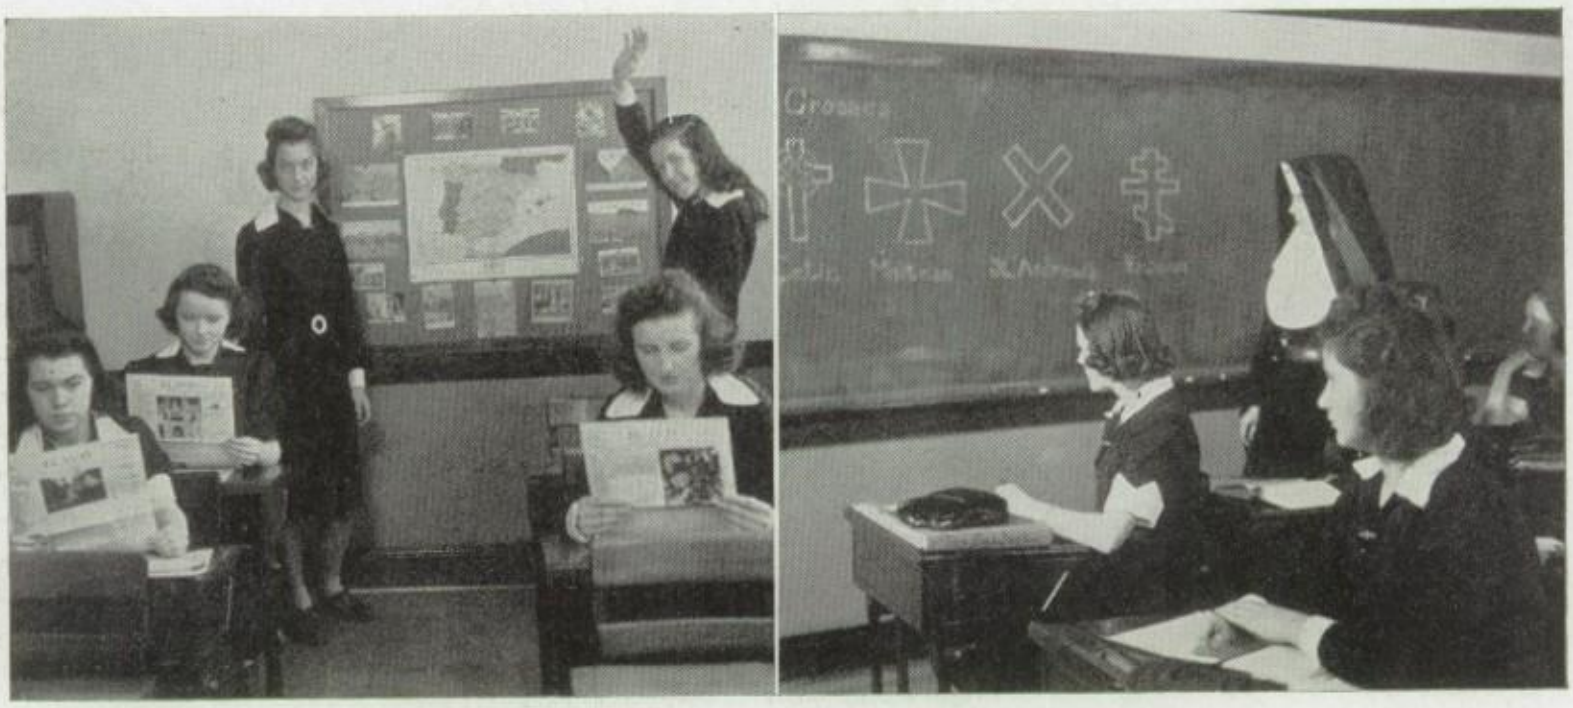
In these days of Pan-Americanism, the language of our neighbors to the South is a fascinating subject, as these Spanish students, Jeanne, Loretta, Dolores, Pat, and Margaret discover. The religion class listens with undivided attention as Sister Mary Regis explains the significance of the various types of crosses.



ROOM 11

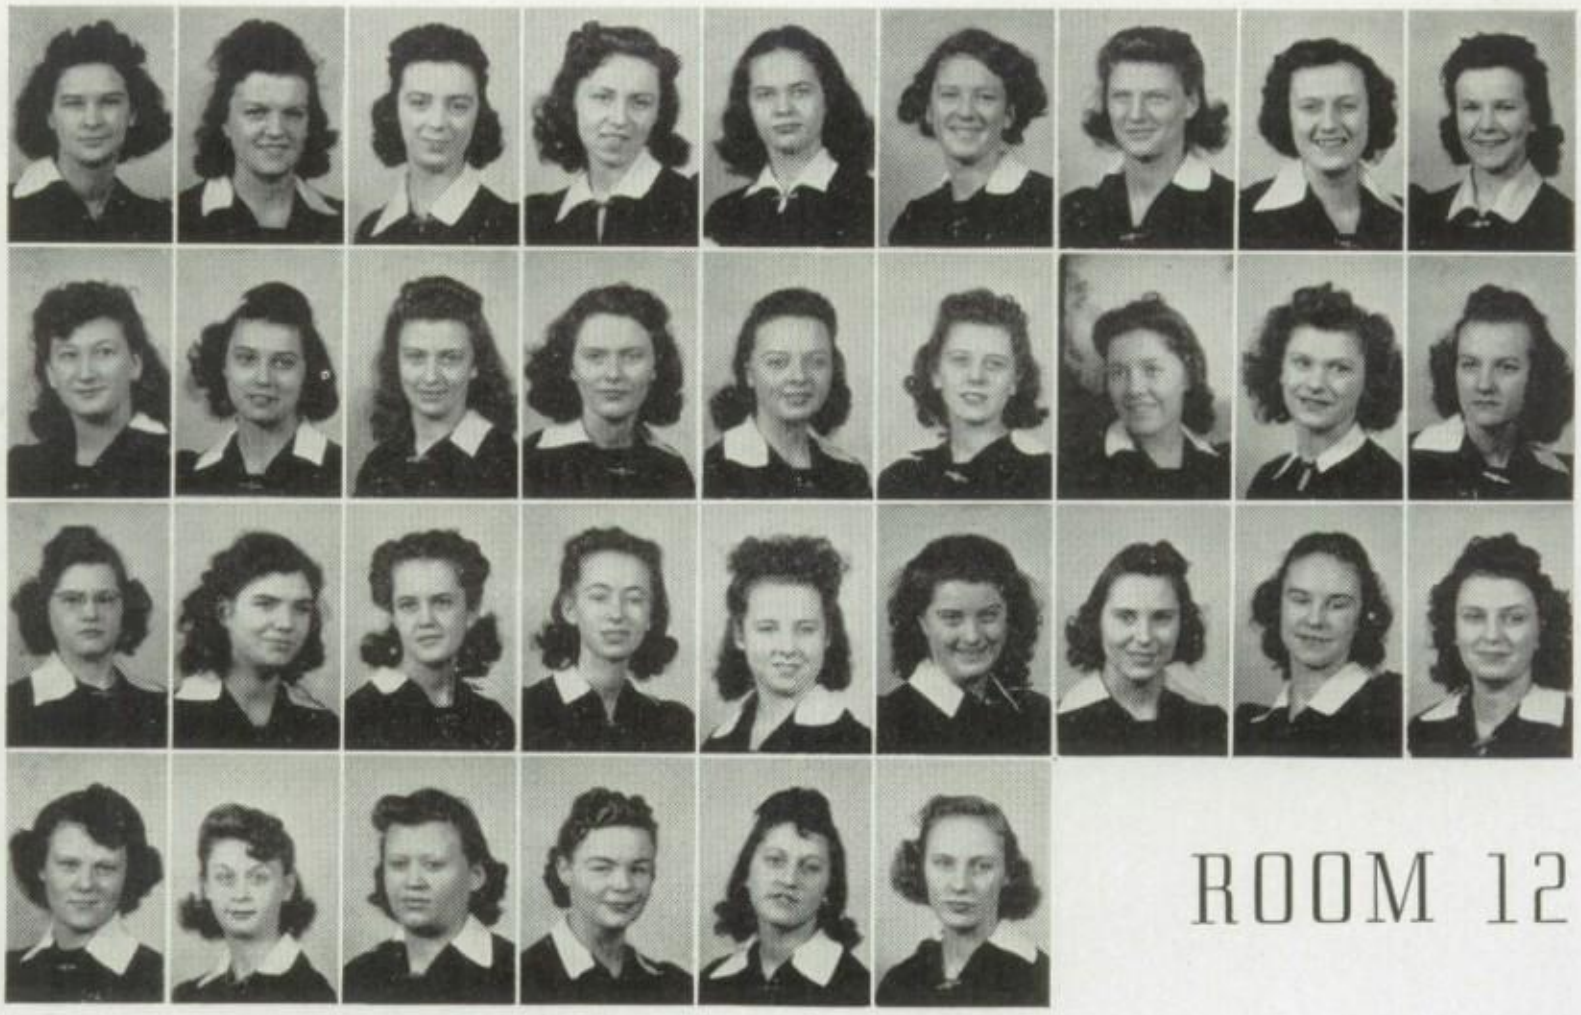
Good Luck!
Winnie Johnson

Officers—Patsy Fullam, president; Mary Hynan, vice president and treasurer; Winifred Johnson, secretary; Jean Morman, booster.

America—an important topic of today and one close to every heart. Sister Mary Winifred assists Mary Kay, Carolyn, and Pat to express their ideas on love of country for the third year English essay.



ROOM 12

Officers—Catherine Prim, president; Claire McNally, secretary; Ruth Pollock, secretary; Louise Kaufman, treasurer.

Helen gives Sister Mary Vincenza and the class the answer to the ageless question, "Where does that money go?"

"Whoops! don't spill it girls!" Even if they do, rubber aprons will protect the "precious uniforms."

Top row—Audrey Boland, Elizabeth Burke, Mary Burke, Harriet Burns, Joan Burns, Marilyn Byrne, Dorothymae Cowdrey, Catherine Donnelly, Joan Falls. Second row—Mary Fearon, Evelyn Fitzmaurice, Winifred Gaughan, Helen Gadwill, Betty Geary, Virginia Hayden, Genevieve Kocinski, Rita Lyng, Mary McCummiskey. Third row—Nancy Mann, Marion Manola, Mercedes Mitchell, Genevieve O'Brien, Rita O'Brien, Margaret Mary O'Connell, Virginia Pekgfske, Annette Pusatera, Betty Raynor. Fourth row—Catherine Rodney, Rosemary Schmidt, Marion Seithammel, Luella Stadter, Jeanne Smith, Frances Walsh.

Officers—Mary V. Granberg, president; Rita Kenny, vice president; Rita Kleifges, secretary; Rosemary Green, treasurer.

Simple, compound, or complex sentences prove no stumbling blocks to junior English students as Sister Mary Gerald watches for possible grammatical errors.

DELIGHTFUL DOMESTICITY

"Watch your calories, girls!" Domestic-minded students concentrate on the technique of preparing the perfect meal.

With all the ingredients near at hand, the girls "just whip up" something special. Just so there isn't too much of any one thing, Sister Mary Roberta watches the proceedings.

The future homemakers pay close attention as Sister works with that "professional touch."

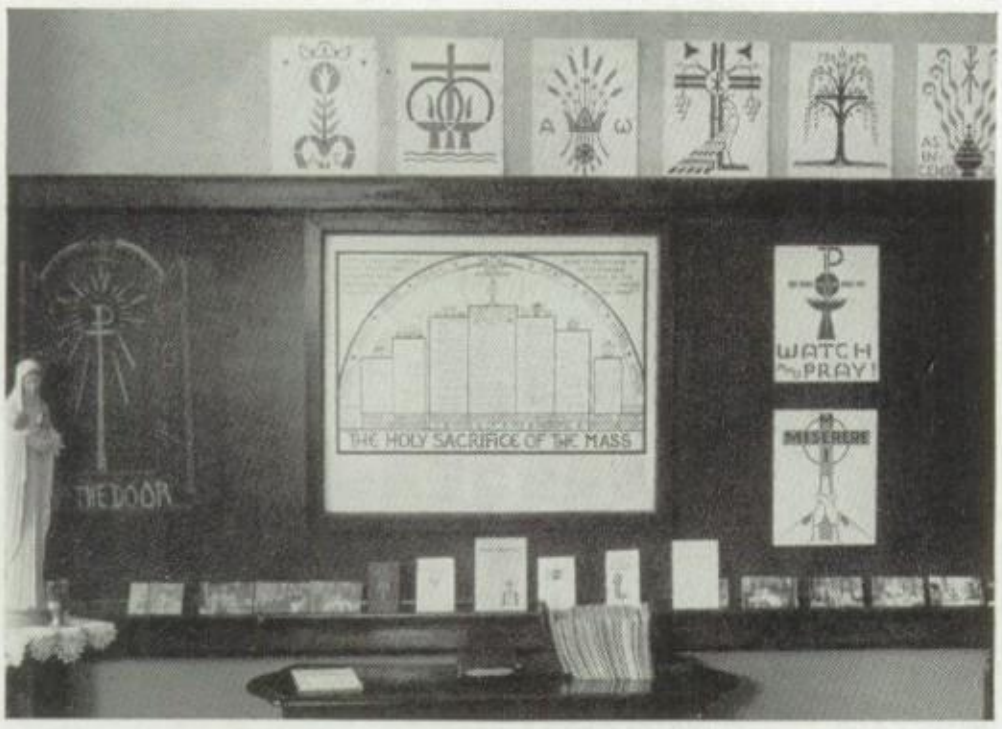
WORKHOUSE OF COSTUME ART

A light remark, "O, I made this," doesn't fool us. We know the careful work that goes into the making of a smart, original outfit. Busy sewers get expert help from Sister Mary Ambrosia.

Regina and Dorothy see that the seams are straight in their new dresses.

Now, the all important fitting! Never a crease or a wrinkle—'cause it's got to be perfect.

Advanced second year students make their Easter bonnets—and loads of others. Each a distinctive style.

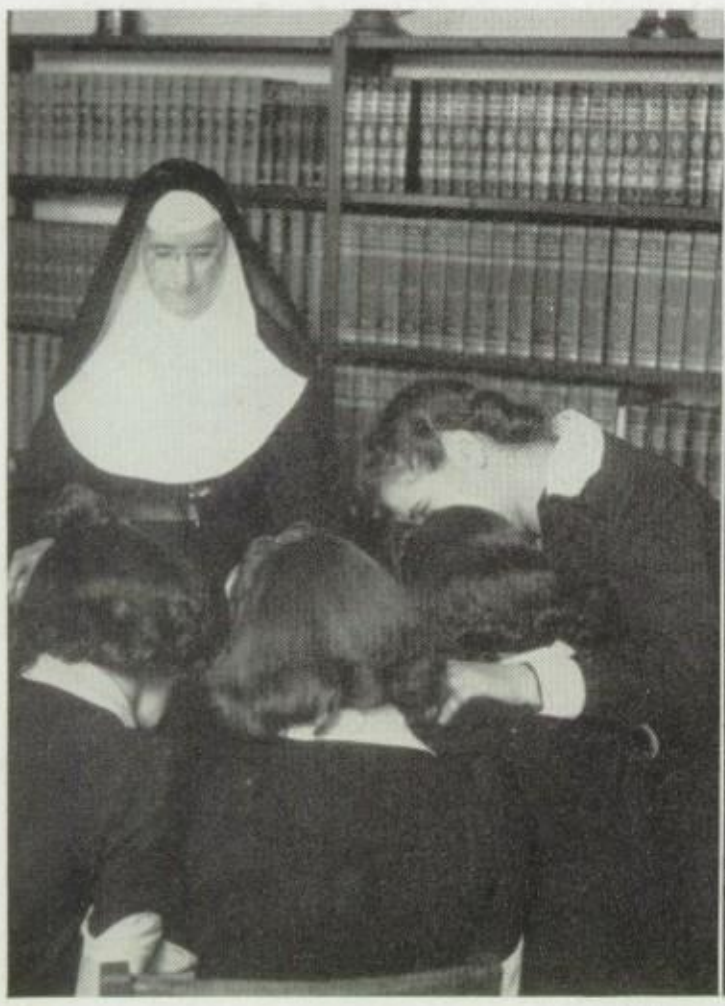


LITURGICAL

Liturgical posters, pamphlets, Mass diagram, board sketches . . . what good, interesting religion classes Room 17 has with all these properties!

LIBRARY

The Library . . . haven of all Mercy girls! What's so intriguing, girls? Sister Mary Monica seems to know.
With such a variety of magazines, you're bound to find the one you want. But Dorothea seems to be having a little trouble with her selection.



EUCLIDS!

Solid geometry has a strong following with these girls. Jean explains one of these hand made structures, and we wish she'd explain it to us, too!

NEWS PREVIEW

For real fun and experience the journalism class proof reads the Hi-Rays. The fun is in knowing the news before it's printed. Sister Mary Marina and Eleanor confer upon a tricky journalistic problem.

STUDY HALL-ERS

Ambitious students get "tonight's" homework done while the others take advantage of the study period to do "last night's." Study "hall-ers," at any rate, keep busy.

Good Luck

Officers—Patricia Blatzer, president; Madonna Mannion, vice president; Ruth McAvoy, treasurer; Patricia Hynan, secretary.

ROOM 13

Happy Hours

Sister Mary Petronilla

Sophomores delve into vertebrates and invertebrates in their Zoology lab. Sister Mary Petronilla shows Pat and Madonna the art of dissecting frogs.

Officers — Patricia O'Connell, president; Margaret Clifford, vice-president; Constance Cleary, treasurer; Mary Halloran, secretary.

ROOM 14

Top row—Celeste Barry, Veronica Bradley, Leatrice Burns, Celeste Carroll, June Carroll, Gertrude Cogan, Rosemary Conlon, Rita Crimmings, Patsy Deane, Marion Dearth, Lillian Dillon, Veronica Jeanne Duggan. Second row—Marguerite Fuhrman, Josephine Horvath, Yvonne Ivanoff, Patricia Karras, June Marie Keleher, Adela Kuczynski, Helen Loftus, Helen Lundstrom, Irene Maliga, Gladys Maxwell, Rosalie Moran, June McMahon. Third row—Rita McNulty, Jean McMullen, Carmela Pacini. Fourth row—Marilou Reily, Carleen Schmidt, Lorraine Triana. Fifth row—Muriel Wagner.

Sister Mary Wilfred is kept busy with business training and commercial geography classes. But the girls must like it, judging by their interest and their smiles.

Officers—Mary O'Malley, president; Nancy Miller, secretary; Beth Ann Burns, treasurer; Rosalie Whalen, editor.

ROOM 16

From the maps that are no longer of the ever - changing world of today, Sister Mary Ancilla teaches of the world of long ago and its difficulties.

Officers—Mary Jane Sullivan, president; Lorraine Buehler, secretary; Geraldine St. Pierre, treasurer.

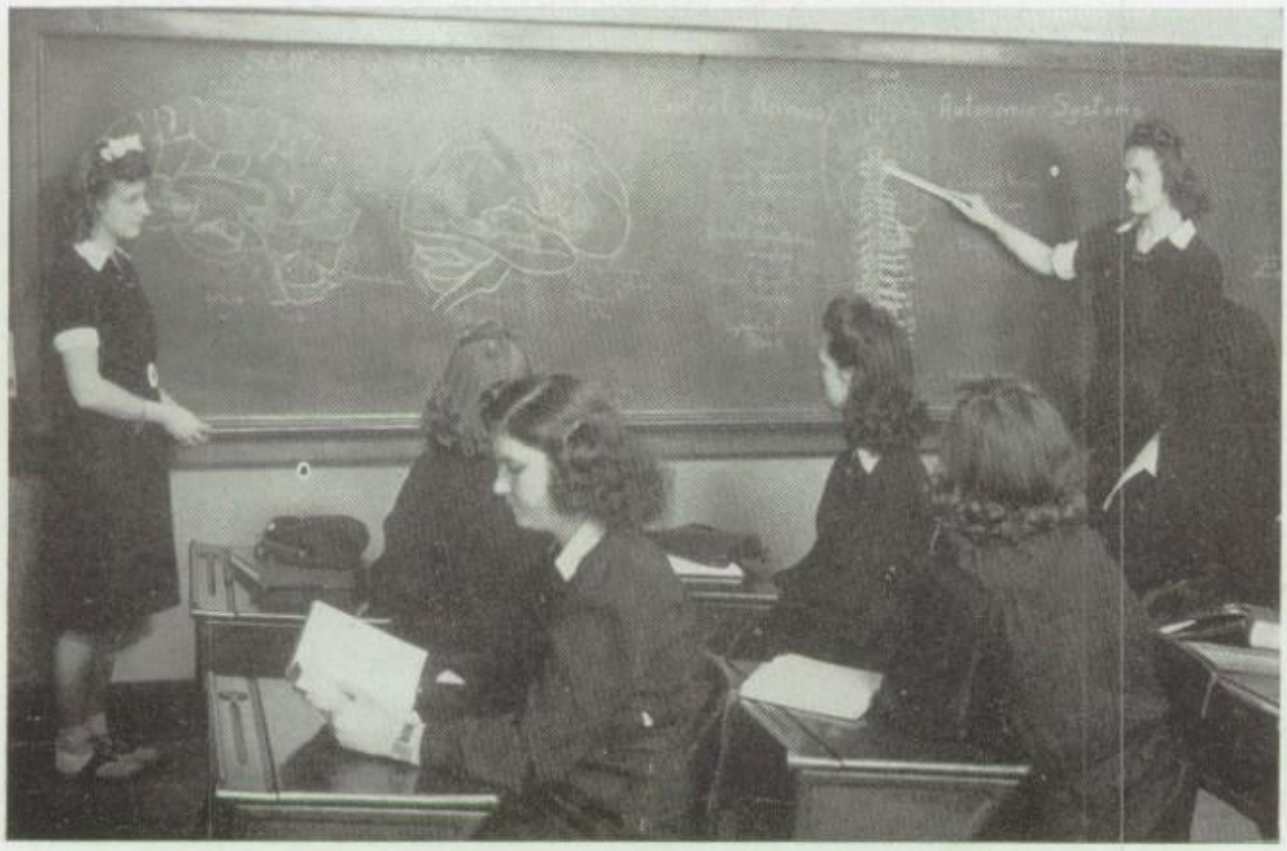
ROOM 17



The mysteries of the mind are explained by Lorraine and Bernadette with the help of Sister Mary Attracta and their classmates. Psychology, just having been included in Mercy's curriculum this year, is a Senior delight as well as a wonder.

Officers—Barbara Johnson, president; Dorothy Buchanan, vice president; Elinore Keeler, secretary; Alice Barrett, treasurer.

Surrounded by the literary-artistic achievements of Sister Mary Placida's English classes, Marian, Marita, Rosemary, and Angeline are absorbed in an oral book report. Pretty different, don't you think?

Officers — Veronica Markey, president; Alice Trainor, vice president; Bernadette Walsh, vice president and treasurer.

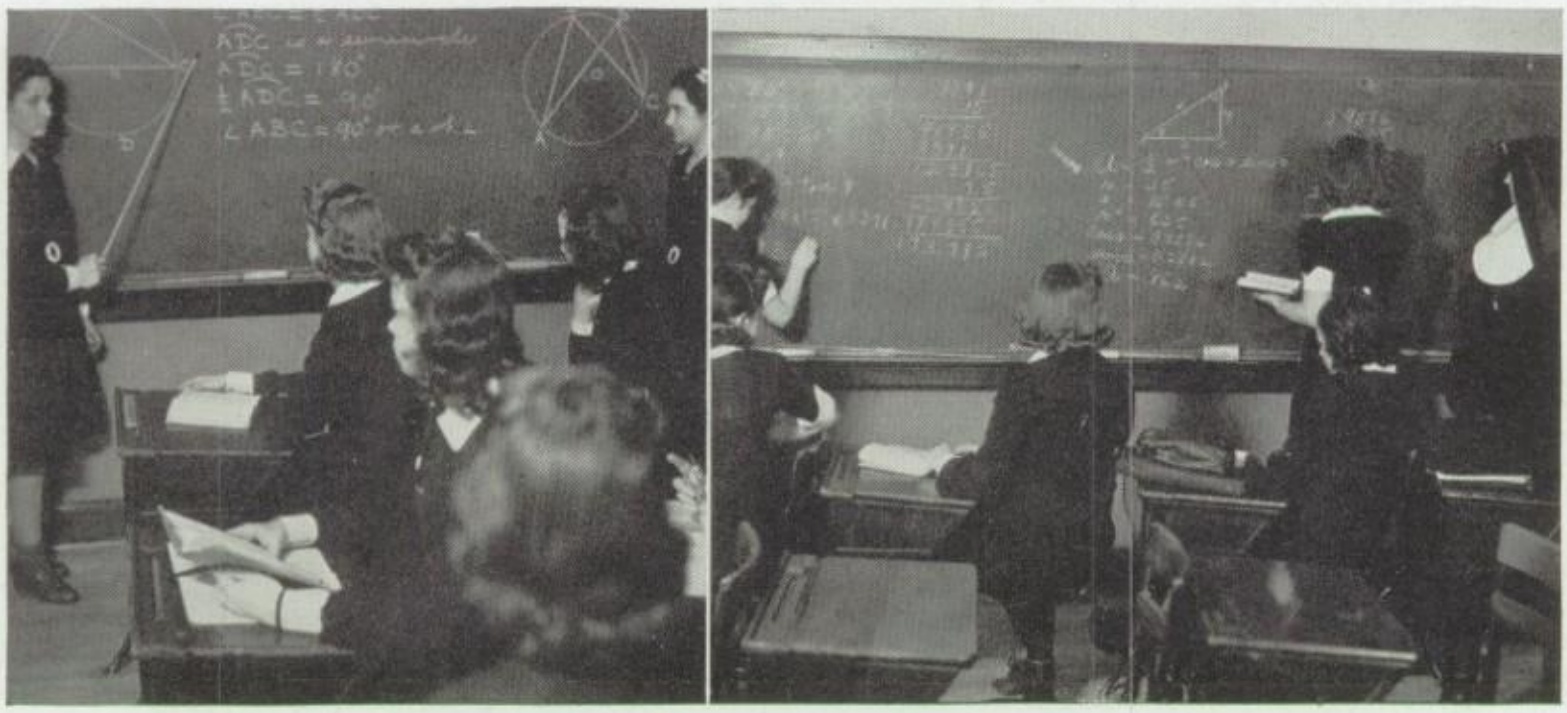
Sister Agnes Marie

Florence explains a theorem as Josephine and the class listen in. Mysterious angles and triangles are discovered by the sophs under the guidance of Sister Agnes Marie.



Officers—Henrietta Lewandowski, president; Jual Guiney, vice president; Pauline Kaufman, treasurer; Alice Mugica, booster.

ROOM 28

Our poor orphan sophomores! During Sister Mary Ethelbert's illness, Henrietta played teacher. Must have been a good one—all the pupils know the answer. They decided, however, when Sister Mary Blanche took over the responsibility, that she made a better teacher.

God Love me

Mercy's delightful cafeteria is alive with noon-time chatter when the girls dine.

Girls leave the candy room munching: candy, popcorn, peanuts, crackerjack (a prize in each and every package).

With the nickelodeon as music-maker, the freshmen of Room 18 enjoy the remaining minutes of their lunch period in Mercy's own Make-believe Danceland (the basement).

ROOM 31

Ah, what fun to dab leisurely with water and paints! But with Sister Mary Charitina's earnest direction, these girls are not playing, but actually working and learning to produce attractive drawings.

Doris is as proud as a peacock over her original drawings; and the Mercian staff made good use of Doris' talent. The dedication page and end sheet are hers.

Good old Webster—always dependable. Sister Mary Anglica supervises the "looking up" in this.

FRESHMEN JOIN THE NINE HUNDRED

Dear Henie:

I don't believe I could begin to write how much I enjoyed being in your home-room this year. I might not be able to come back next year, in case that should happen I do hope we will continue to communicate with each other at least. But if I do come back you can be certain that I am going to do my best to get in your room. As the old saying goes "Out in the ocean

TUESDAY—3:30

While Theresa, the chairman, and the others listen most intently, John a Ed attempt to clear up a puzzling question by the use of their missals. Fath Ignatius, O.Carm., (right) is the official "straightener outer," whenever t enthusiastic sessioners get off the track.

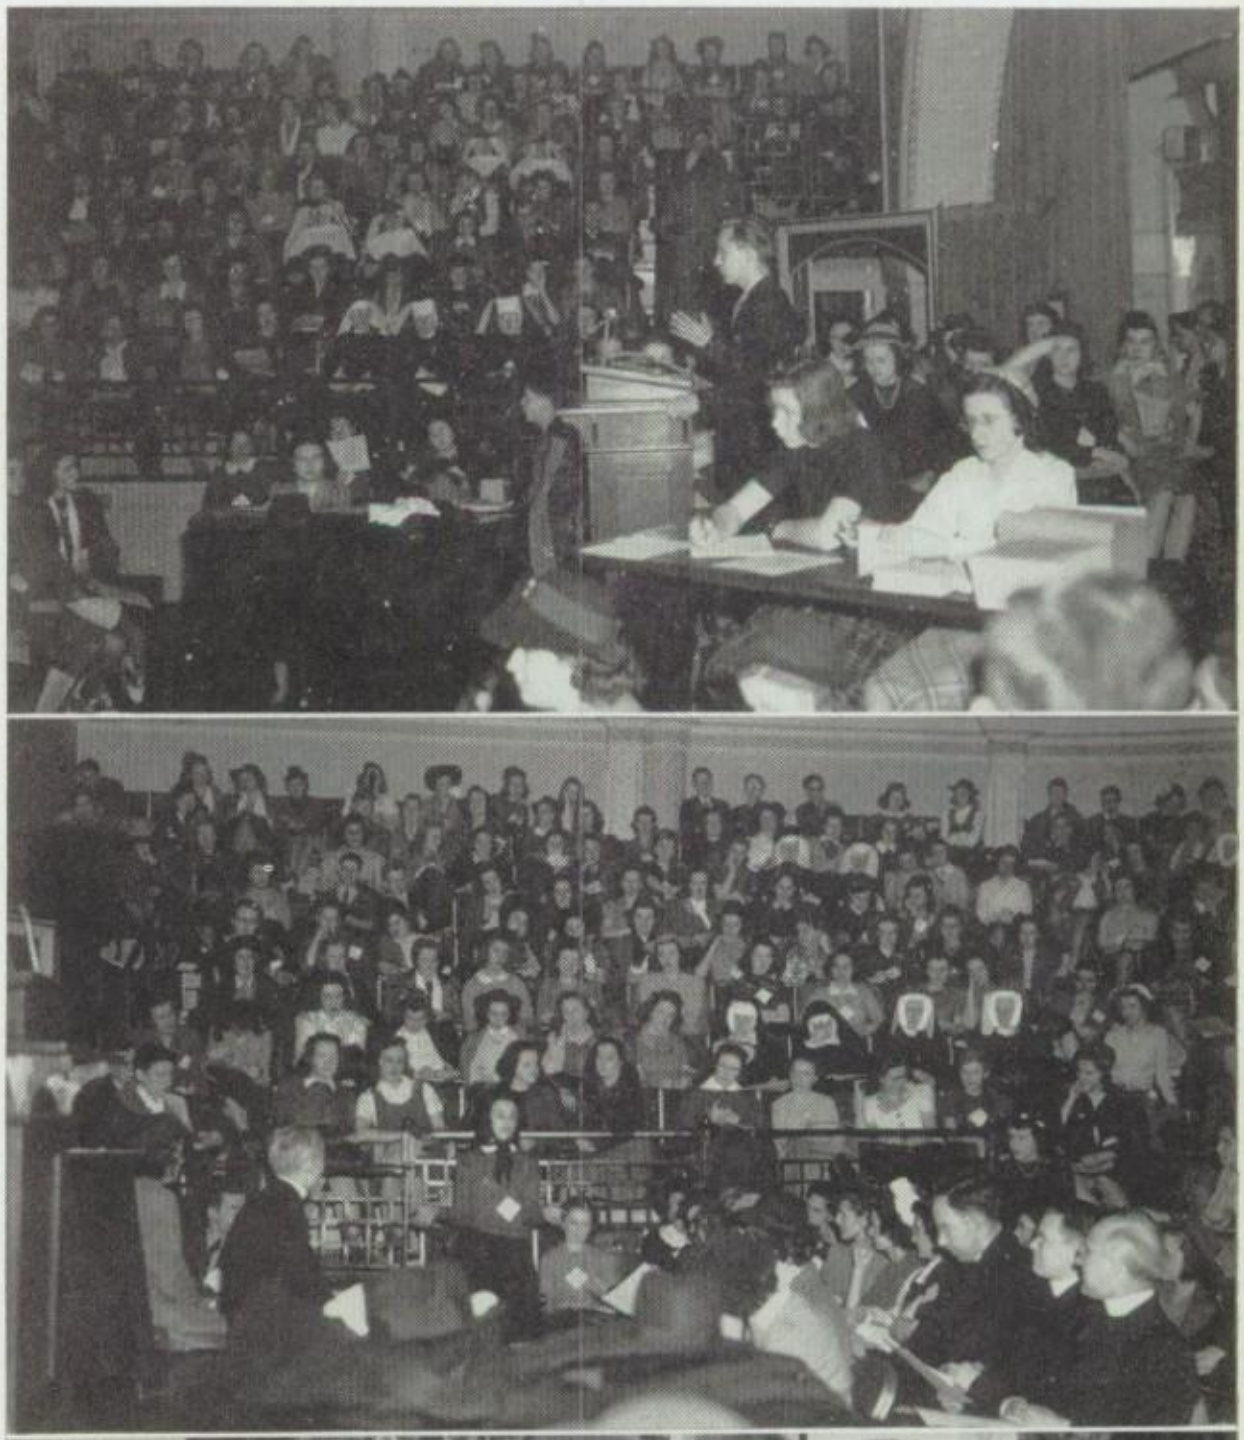
What would our bull sessions be witho those two "fuedin' friends," John Taa and Edmund Castillo? The other b sessioners seem to be enjoying th friendly disagreement. Note the missa This discussion was on the Holy We ceremonies.

In order that the boys and girls who attend the weekly Cisca meetings Saturday, might have a clearer knowledge of the agenda discussion, Merc Sodality holds a bull session every Tuesday afternoon. Enthusiastic Ciscans come from Leo, Mt. Carmel, St. Rita, De LaSalle, Philip and St. Ignatius. "Good news travels fast," and in this case many schools throughout the city, hearing of the fine wo accomplished by Mercy bull sessions, followed her example.

OUR BULL SESSIONS

CISCA MEETING

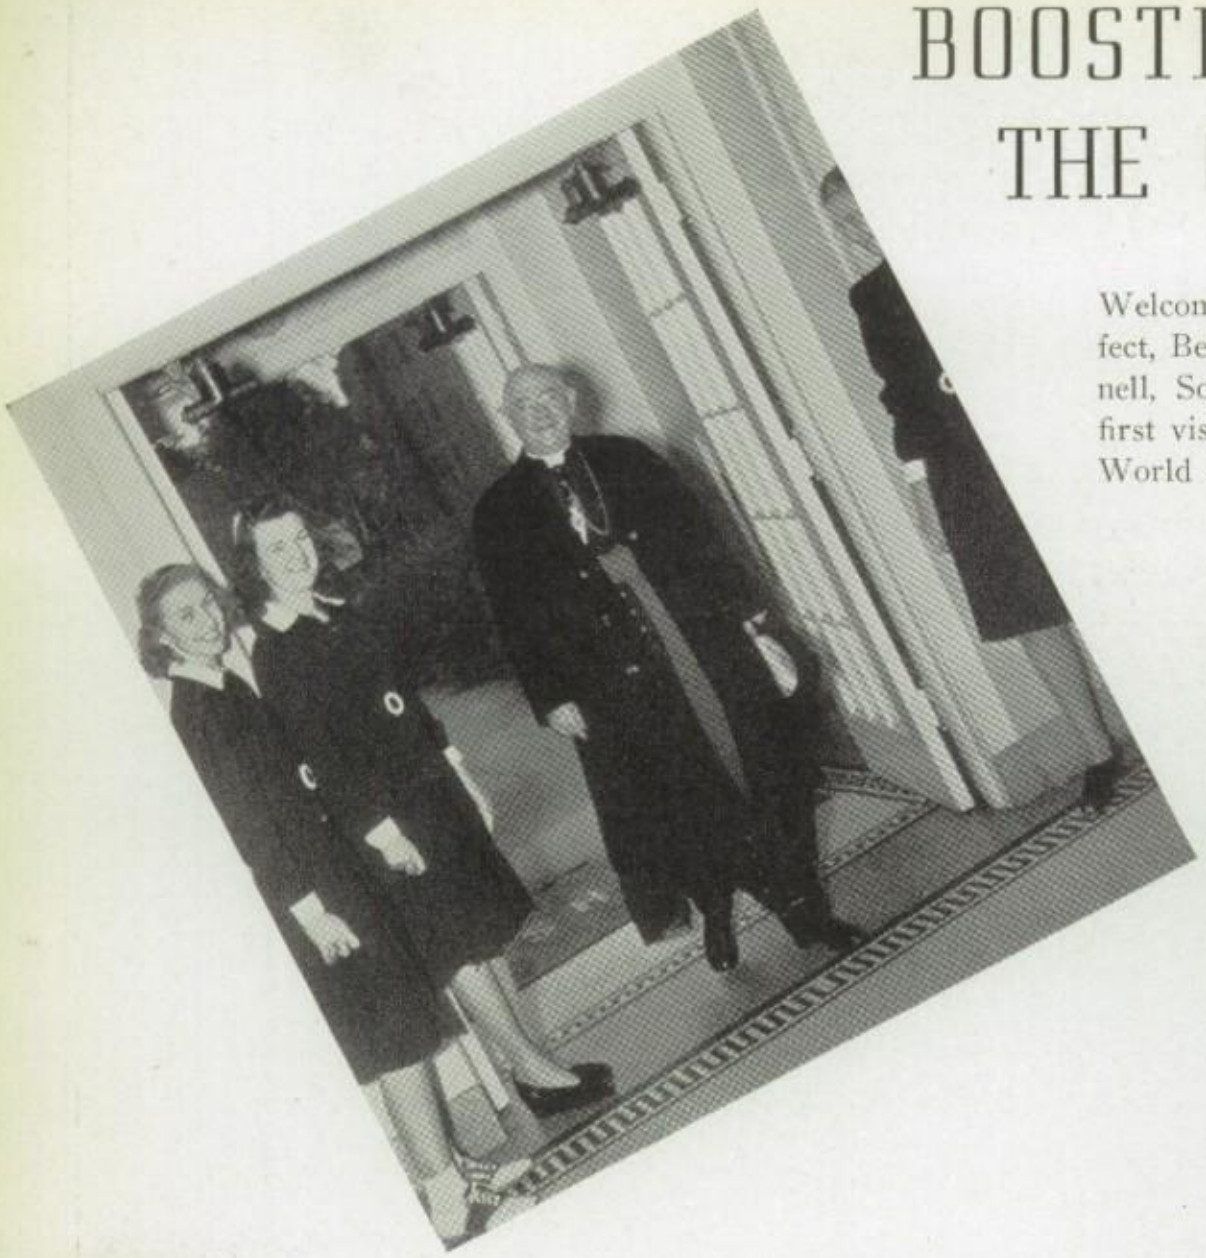
Our own Mary Agnes O'Connell, as treasurer of Cisca, is on the job every Saturday to sell the admit tags. Right—It is the fiery zeal of Cisca's director, the Rev. Martin J. Carrabine, that keeps Ciscans wanting to be Ciscans. Father is always there to smooth out difficulties and to encourage volunteer speakers with his approving nod or word of praise.



It's Saturday morning—10 o'clock—and the chairman brings down the gavel to open the meeting with the well-loved prayer of Ciscans—"Dear Jesus, help me to spread Thy fragrance everywhere . . ." Representing the Catholic youth of Chicago, the delegates came from colleges and high schools throughout the city, to discuss vital religious subjects. Evidently the pictures here represent a Eucharistic-Our Lady committee meeting for Gordon Curzon, De Paul university, is chairman. The thought-provoking agenda of the meetings bring out the best in the youthful debaters who leave each week with a new incentive "to spread His fragrance everywhere."

Below—"Get your Cisca News—only one cent!" is the chant here as Ciscans file out. Each scans the newsy mimeographed publication to see what Cisca and Cisca schools are doing.

BOOSTING THE CATHOLIC PRESS



Welcoming smiles of Theresa Heneghan, Sodality prefect, Betty Collins, Senior president, and Mary A. O'Connell, Sodality secretary, greet Archbishop Stritch on his first visit to Mercy, the occasion, the opening of the New World drive.

In the seats of honor are the Rev. Edward Dailey, editor of the New World; His Excellency, the Most Reverend Samuel A. Stritch, D.D.; and the Rev. Thomas Meehan, circulation manager of the New World.

His Excellency finds encouragement in our bulleti board display labeled "I Saw It in The New World."

More than a thousand delegates representing the high schools and grammar schools of Chicago's South side gathered at Mercy to hear from their beloved Archbishop and the New World representatives the details of the drive that is to put our Archdiocesan newspaper in every home.

OUR DIOCESAN PAPER

IN EVERY HOME

As chairman of the New World drive in our school, Alice Ward (left) assisted by Mary Alice Egan (right) and the other Sodality chairmen, made a distinctive record. With the motto, "The New World in Every Home," Mercy reached a total of almost five hundred new subscriptions. Room 2 won the plaque for having the best record of the school.

PRAYER CRUSADE

MARY CATHERINE McMAHON
Chairman

Working in cooperation with the office of the Sorrowful Mother Novena office, Mercy led all girls' schools of the city in the crusade for prayers for peace—the crusade that was started in response to Our Holy Father's plea for prayers. Weekly the delegates reported for their rooms to Mary Catherine McMahon, chairman, who, with her assistant, Rita Gallagher, faithfully recorded the totals of Masses, Communions, prayers, and good works, and sent them to the Novena office.

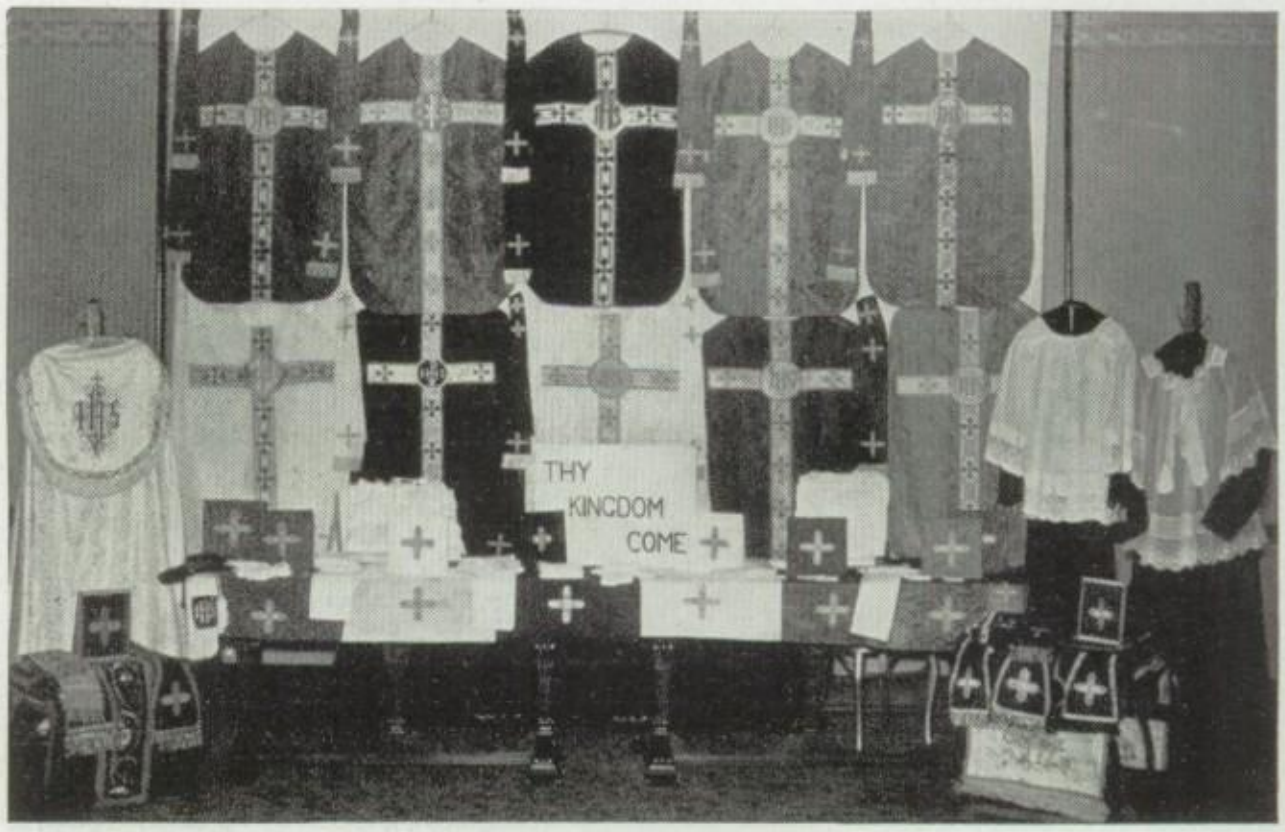
MERCY MISSION GUILD

On December 3, Sister Mary Ambrosia and five self-sacrificing women met to form the nucleus of the Mercy Mission Guild. Before long the club grew, until now, when nearly a dozen women give their time and sewing talents twice a month for the furtherance of Christ's Kingdom. The purpose of the Guild is to supply the Home Missions, and especially chapels, with vestments and altar linens. Since its inauguration, the Guild has completed several sets of altar linens and fifteen sets of vestments. Because of the success it has attained in its first year, the members are looking forward with great plans for the Guild, in the coming year.

After their sewing session, the ladies have tea and cake, which, in a way, constitutes their earthly reward. But only God can bestow upon these Mary-like women their heavenly reward.



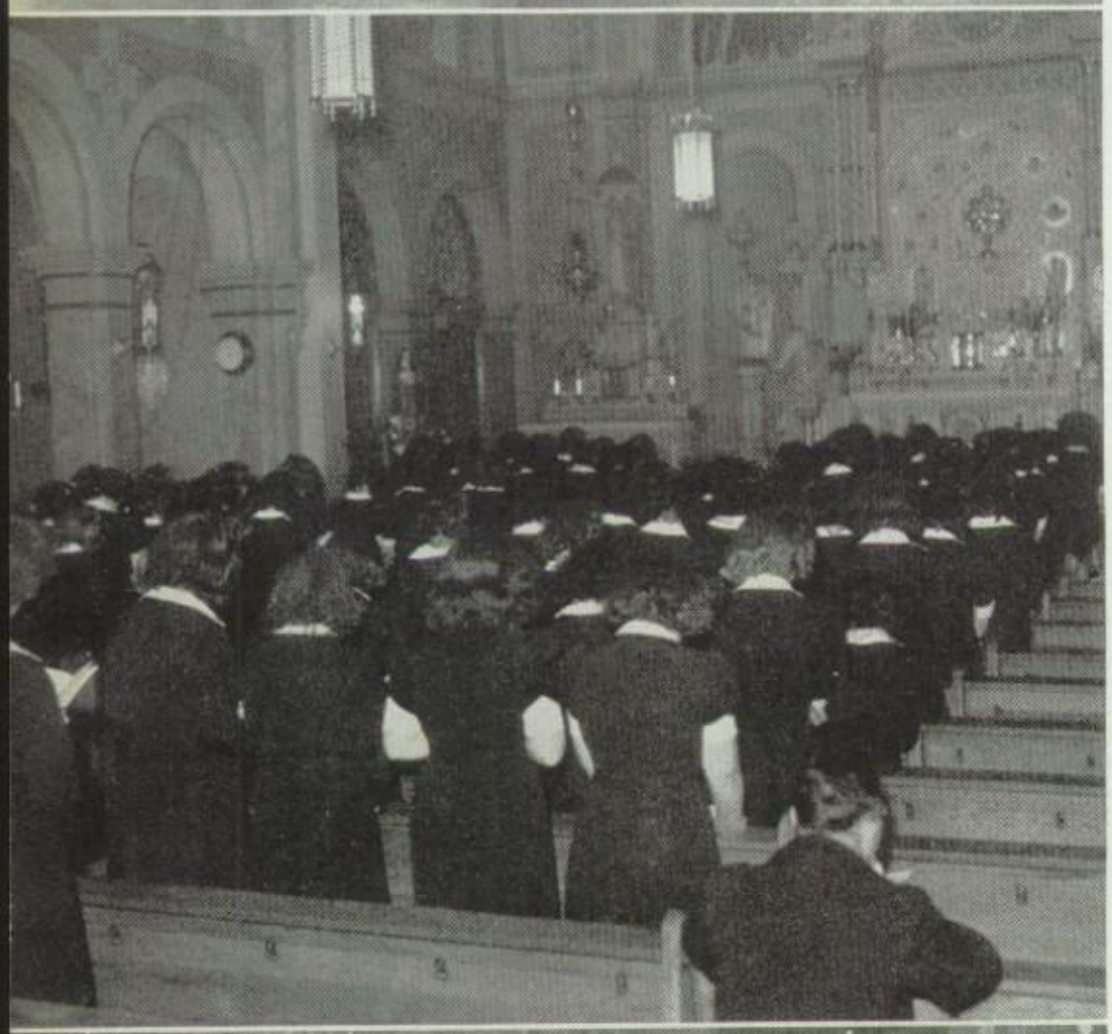
All for the honor and glory of God! These vestments and altar linens, products of the Mission Guild, are ready for shipment to The Extension, where they will be distributed to the Home Missions.

FOR THE MISSIONS

The load of medical supplies for the missions down South bring smiles of victory to Medical Missioners Rose LaMantia, Rita McNally, vice-president; Mary Duffy, president; Evelyn Fitzmaurice, Margaret Russell, Gerry LaMantia. These were all donations solicited by the girls in their annual drive.

Making bandages and sponges for clinics absorbs most of the girls' time during their Tuesday meetings. This year the Medical Missions has done more work than ever in helping the poor.

Evelyn, Rita, Marg, Louise and Josephine are proud of the quilts made during the course of the year for the needy.



TO ADORE CHRIST

. . . these girls give to Him each month an hour at the Poor Clare chapel. Their smiles as the girls enter the chapel show that they love it.

Before the perpetually exposed Sacrament, the girls recite together the Office of Adoration. Then follows Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The exquisite beauty of the chapel, the music, and above all, the presence of Christ Himself, make the members of the Reparation Guild look upon the first Thursday of every month as their "Heavenly Day."

McGrath and L. Rocco.

CATECHISTS

Mary Therese Nevins, Aurea Brinelli, Monica Morgan, Anna Mae Cassidy, Anna Mae Jenin, Dorothy Butler, Patricia O'Donnell, Muriel Wagner, Margie Reilly, Helen Tobczak, Patricia Desmond, and Betty Ballard.

Catholic Action in action! These smiling, confident girls are so interested in spreading Christ's Kingdom that they have volunteered their time and energy to teach Catechism to the children of poor missions. During the last half of the year the "teachers" have traveled once a week to the Cenacle to take instructions in Catechetical work from the Sisters of the Cenacle. This summer they will actually take over classes and put into practice all their Catholic teaching principles.

"52" CLUB

Faithful—for fifty-two whole weeks! Because there were so many Mercy girls who made the novena to Our Sorrowful Mother for one year, they decided to form a "52" Club. No officers, no rules, no dues, it's strictly an honor club. And strictly in honor of Mary.

March 17 was a double celebration for Mercy, because the Sodality held a Barn Dance with ALL the trimmings. Scarecrows, with and without horses, bales of hay, real side saddles, wagon wheels, authentic barn dance music, were all packed into the gym on St. Patrick's night, along with dozens and dozens of Sodalists and their guests.

The fiddlin' was furnished by Guy Colby and his band. Their tunes, "The Hayseed Hop," "Barnyard Bounce," and "Cornhusk Clomp" were a GASPING success for the dancers.

Back to "calm" dancing the couples are snapped around the band stand.

SODALITY GOES RUSTIC

Gloria Walsh sings those good old Irish songs for the assembled dancers.

Is this what Mr. Colby said to do?

Eileen and her escort got the hang of it right away!

Even the chaperons had a good time!!

OUR TEACHER

THE REVEREND THOMAS P. DENNEHY

Father Dennehy has earned his special place in the hearts of the Seniors. Three times each week this year he has come over to Mercy from St. Dorothy's to teach the Senior class such facts of religion that they will find useful in their future lives. His sacrifice was to our benefit—a new store of "real-life" religious instruction.

THE AFTERMATH

Barn Dance proceeds are converted into a treasury of books by Catholic authors for the library shelves. Smiling, prefect Theresa Heneghan presents the precious gift of the Sodality to library president, Mary Catherine McMahon.

SACRISTANS

The sacristy hums with activity much of the time. Sister Mary Vitalis, assisted by Catherine Wagner, Margaret Reed and Eileen Wright, keeps the vestments in order, flowers and lights before the altars, and the chapel sparkling.

FOR THE POOR

Given in Christ-like manner, these baskets, which Mary, Jeanette and Mary Catherine aided in preparing, with over one hundred others, brought good cheer into the homes of many poor at Christmas time.

FOR THE AGED

St. Patrick, in the guise of Mercy girls, visited the Old People at the Home directed by the Little Sisters of the Poor. Betty Lou, Irene, and Alberta enjoyed wrapping the treats, which the four classes brought.

FOR SHUT-INS

Good literature, especially Catholic literature, was brought to patients of various hospitals and institutions through the efforts of the Sodality and the cooperation of the student body. Mary Alice, Rita, Betty, Loretta, and Margerie proudly exhibit the results of the Drive.

CHEER-GIVERS

The accomplished actresses are: Ruth Dixon, as Ruth; Eileen McGloin as Nora; Betty Schuberth as Jennie; Mary Helen Condon as Yvonne; Jeanette Wright as Jane; Ann Marie Callaghan as Lou; Shirlee Lamb as Agnes; Marie Loncar as Sister Mary DePaul; Gloria Walsh as Joan; Mary Lou Quinn as Dot; and Kathy Flynn as Polly.

Because Nora and Yvonne each have their favorite girl, many a time they compared opinions!

IN LIFE'S GLAD MORN

VOCATION WEEK

The Sodality presented Father Lord's play, "In Life's Glad Morn" as a vocation week project. The audience wept and laughed, but cheered and cheered when Marie Loncar stepped on the stage as Sister Mary DePaul.

Since most girls eventually will becomes wives and mothers the forum on Christian Marriage, led by Shirlee Lamb, pointed the correct and Christian path for them to follow.

The Value of a College Education was shown to full advantage when Sister Mary of the Angels came from St. Xavier College to speak to the seniors. Collegians all! This was the motto of the seniors as left the assembly.

Future nurses heard the requirements, hardships, and pleasures that accompany the profession they intend to follow, when Sister Mary Therese, R.S.M., and Sister Mary Redempta, R.S.M., of Mercy hospital gave the seniors the inside "info" on this vocation. The number of seniors aspiring to become nurses increased after this talk.

Mr. Hepp of Bryant and Stratton Business college showed business women of the future how to become able stenotypists and efficient secretaries.

CHANTING OFFICE

The Sophomores in the peacefulness of our lovely chapel chant Compline from the Divine Office.

Again, the Sophomores publicly express their homage before the Tabernacle. They are chanting the Office of Adoration during the annual retreat.

IN RETREAT

Retreat master, the Rev. Albert Murray, C.S.P., holds this attentive audience spiritually spellbound as he tells them of the peace and happiness of a holy life in God. The annual retreat, January 29, 30, and 31, was an appropriate incentive for improvement in our daily lives.

THE ARTS

Judging by her happy smile, Sister Mary Emmanuel, teacher of Piano, Harmony, Composition, Appreciation of Music, History of Music, and Counterpoint, must have heard a satisfactory lesson from Eleanor.

ALLEGRO CLUB

In the bi-weekly Allegro Club meetings, members listened attentively to biographies of musicians, brief historical notes on musical instruments, piano selections, all of which were given by the girls. Sister Mary Emmanuel gave instructions during these meetings on modern piano technique. At the Intermediate Recital, the majority of the Allegro members delighted their families and friends by displaying their accomplishments of the year.

Standing: Margaret Coghlan, Marion Biehl, Rosemary Zeller, Janet Watson, Catherine Kraemer, Mary Hardiman, and Shirley Drexler. Seated—Rose Capodice, Barbara Johnson, Frances Rochowiak, Helen Bechely, Theresa Giachetti, Margaret Hoffman, Rosemary O'Neill, Leona Hynes, Beatrice Tufo, Dolores Welter. At the piano—Rosemary Salmon.

Faithful, studious disciples of the Bach, Brahms, and Beethoven compositions received their reward for their diligent work by being presented by the Mercy School of Music in the Diploma and Certificate Recital on Monday, June 9. In the picture, around Marie Derwinski (seated), are Rose Capodice, Mary Mitchell, Rosemary Enright, Rosemary Salmon, Patricia Salmon, Anastasia Majarakis, Eleanor Rosekrans, and Beatrice Tufo. Of this group, certificates were received by Marie, Eleanor, and Beatrice. Patricia was awarded a piano diploma.

APPEARING IN RECITAL

THE ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, ever growing in popularity, has many striving members who have become distinguished by both their work and their familiar capes and matching "dinks."

Tune-up time . . . that's right —and, with the aid of Sister Mary Richardine, the instruments will be in perfect harmony.

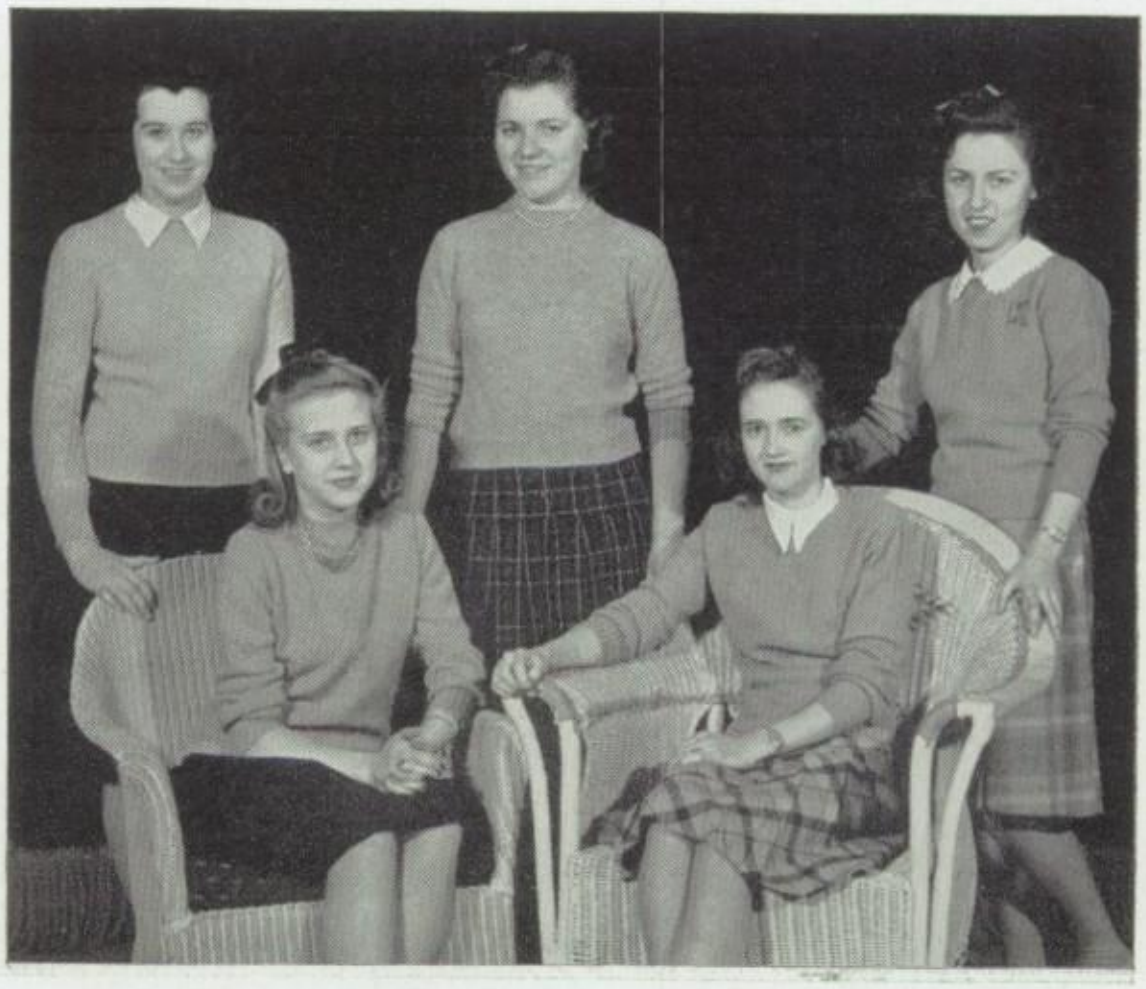
These thirty-three music-makers enrich many Mercy programs with their delightful music.



Officers (Seated)—Betty Lee Mayer, vice president; Patricia Ryan, president. Standing—Josephine Slattery, social chairman; Betty Isaac, librarian; Loretta Caron, librarian.

Sister Mary Eugene devotes her time to instructing the Glee Club and giving voice lessons. In this picture Sister is giving Gwendolyn Anderson a voice lesson.

IN THE VOICE DEPARTMENT

Caught in the act! Class choral and music appreciation are taught to the girls by Sister Mary Norinne. This work is an essential minor in the program of the underclassmen.

GLEE CLUB

Glee club officers: Josephine LaMantia, president; Geraldine King and Margaret Russell, social chairmen; Marilyn Schuberth, historian; Mary Hynan and Loretta Caron, librarians.

Mercy's A Cappella celebrates Christmas by spreading cheer through their singing of carols. The girls visited Mercy hospital and the Provincial house of the Sisters of Mercy. During the year the girls also had the honor of singing on WBBM for the annual football game.

IN VOICE RECITAL

MARY LUCILLE GROGAN

JOSEPHINE LAMANTIA

Candidates for Certificate

RECITAL SUNDAY, MAY 18

Having completed the required vocal work, Mary Lucille, soprano, and Josephine, mezzo-contralto, were presented in a certificate recital. Each rendered selections suited to her own voice. The loveliness of the recital went hand in hand with the honor of achievement.

THE GLEE CLUB CONCERT (OPPOSITE)

The annual Spring Concert of Mercy's Glee club, on May 14, was an overwhelming success. The eighty-five melodious voices rendered selections that ran the gauntlet from Brahm's "Ave Maria" to the patriotic "I Am an American." The specially trained A Cappella had several numbers of its own, including "The Song of the Metronome" and "An April Song." Soloists Josephine LaMantia, Mary Lucille Grogan, Shirley Mae Simmons, and Gwendolyn Anderson enchanted the audience with their remarkable voices.
Beautiful voices and beautiful gowns made this year's Spring Concert an unforgettable event.

At right, seated—Alice Ward, Ritamae Parks, Josephine LaMantia, Mary Lucille Grogan, Virginia Schmitt, Margaret Russell, Rosemary Hayes, Shirlee Lumpp, Catherine Altenbach, Eileen Kennedy, Gertrude Mary Koehl, Margaret O'Donohue. Kneeling—Shirley Mower, Kathryanne Pence, Marie LaMantia, Eileen Sheridan, Ruth Pollack, Patricia Cooling, Mary Katherine Kent, Mary Lou Quinn, and Marjorie Pearson. Standing—Marilyn Schuberth, Loretto Molloy, Mary Alice Egan, Mary Anne McIntyre, Mary Lou Watson, Annamae Keegan, Mary Laetitia Mann, Mary Alice McGrath, Genevieve Brennan, Eva Mae Flannigan, Bette Collins, Geraldine King, Anna Marie Dignan, Mary Hynan, Janet Kenneley, Marie Loncar, Ellen Elaine Butler, and Cleon Barana.

Above, left to right—Charlotte Twardowski, Loretta Caron, Alice Ward, Gwendolyn Anderson, Coletta Duffy, Josephine LaMantia, Marie LaMantia, Gertrude Mary Koehl, Mary Alice Egan, Loretta Molloy, Margaret Russell, Annette Pusatera, Mary Lucille Grogan, Margaret Mary Dewey, Mary Katherine Kent, Ruth Pollack, Kathryanne Pence, Bettie Brizic, Shirley Mae Simmons, Mary Hynan, Genevieve Brennan, Marion Sheridan, and Geraldine King.

AND ONE NIGHT

Glee Club members and guests arrive at the Boulevard Room of the Stevens to dance to the music of Hal Munbarr. Lillian and Mary daintily lift swishing skirts.

Smiles everywhere . . . gay conversations interrupted by the ever present photographer.

My, it must be getting late for someone's escort!

"Ain't we got fun," say the delightful smiles of the Glee Club officers: Marilyn Schuberth, Gerry King, Margaret Russell, Jo LaMantia, Loretta Caron and Mary Hynan.

Standing: Joan Fovell, Elayne Meyers, Marguerite Fitzpatrick, Rosemary O'Brien, Phyllis Overling. Seated: Margaret Brady, Virginia O'Neil, June Carroll, Dorothy Buchanan, Irene Wilson, Delphine Rogan. Not in picture—Ellenelaine Butler, Bernadette McNamara, Doris Moody and Alma Mary Swatzel.

Everybody's little helpers were these girls of the Art Club. Generous with their talent, under Sister Mary Charitina's supervision, they made attractive posters for the year's full program. The Glee Club Dance, the Sodality Barn Dance, the Sport Dance, and the Senior Prom, the Mothers' Carnival, the Pancake Dinner, and the skating parties—all were advertised by their willing brushes and colors. And lest we forget, their home rooms displayed their work constantly.

Art is a required subject and is studied by all freshmen. Those of the students who wish to continue their work in this subject may join the Art club which gives them an opportunity to do advanced work and keep up the expression of their talent.

CREATIVE FINGERS

BY WAY OF THE STAGE

Miss Mary Synon
Director

Under Sister Mary Richardine and Miss Mary Synon, the plays go on. Classes meet weekly throughout the year.

The Dramatic Art League officers are: Betty Jane Van Horton, librarian; Anna Marie Dignan, social chairman; Eileen Sheridan, president; Lillian Bass, treasurer; Helen Allen, vice-president; and Joan Moakler, secretary.

Below: Delegates. Standing—Christie Wellman, Marguerite McDonough, Alice Mugica, Mary Lou Rielley, Eleanor Phelan, Mary Rose Sacks, Madonna Mannion, Marion Zagar, Jean Bolan, Mary O'Malley, Louise Dieterle, Louise Ready, Alicia Hartley, and Joan Marie Trunk. Seated—Bernadette Walsh and Adele McCormick.

THE PAMPERED DARLING

The Pampered Darling, a one-act farce, was presented by the Dramatic Art league at Christmas time. Characters represented were: Eileen Sheridan, Virginia Zimmerman, Frances Cummings, Anna Marie Dignan, Jean Devereaux, Marie Loncar, Constance McDonough, Margy O'Hara, Grace Killeen, Patsy Dalton, and Patricia McMahon.

Threatening a pretended operation, Anna Marie attempts to make Frances give herself, or himself (?), away. "So you won't talk, Frances!" and with Eileen pleading, too?

DADDY LONG-LEGS

Our Senior Play, "Daddy Long-Legs"! A real triumph for the Seniors was the wonderful reception of their play on February 20 and 21. A double cast and a double showing proved beyond a doubt the dramatic ability of the 1941 class. If the audience was sorry to see the curtains close, the casts were even more sorry, for when the play was over, it meant the end of six weeks of fun. Along with the L-O-N-G speeches to memorize and the L-O-N-G hours of practice, "Daddy L-O-N-G-Legs still was fun!

THE CAST

Sadie Kate, Anna Marie Gilmore, Virginia Schmitt; Gladiola, Margie O'Hara, Patricia Ryan; Loretta, Maureen Daly, Rita Mae Parks; Mamie, Gertrude Konsowski, Dorothy Carroll; Lillian, Lorraine Carlson; Freddie Perkins, Anna Marie Callaghan, Mary Jane Conley; Mrs. Lippert, Cleon Barana, Eva Mae Flannigan; Judy, Joan Moakler, Eileen Sheridan; Miss Pritchard, Dolores Dolan, Anna Marie Dignan; Mr. Wykoff, Jeanette Wright, Madeline Kiley; Mr. Parsons, Betty Ballard, Mary L. Mann; Jervis Pendleton, Mary Agnes O'Connell, Gerry King; Sallie McBride, Jean Devereaux, Eileen Reynolds; Julia Pendleton, Lillian Bass, Rosemary Hayes; Mrs. Pendleton, Theresa Kehoe, Helen Allen; Sarah, the maid, Helen Hanley; Jimmy McBride, Frances Cummings, Constance McDonough; Mrs. Semple, Gertrude Koehl, Eileen McGloin; Carrie, Veronica Davaney, Catherine McNichols; Mrs. Griggs, Betty Jane Van Horton, Annamae Keegan; Miss Walters, Theresa Heneghan, Grace Killeen; Miss Webster, Marilyn Schuberth, Margaret Russell.

Opposite Page. Top—Judy and some of the orphans smother giggles 'cause it's "visiting day" for those terrible trustees. Left—Jervis and Judy up on top, Judy and Jervis down below. On top—Jervis asks Judy to become his wife and down below, Judy accepts. Are you that surprised, Jervis?

Below—Mrs. Pendleton and Mrs. Semple are having a little disagreement, but the other characters are getting along quite well.

On This Page. Top—Abner Parsons is enraged at the impertinence of the institution's inmates. Even with "Daddy" on her side, it looks bad for Judy. Right—Jervis dictates to his secretary, as Mrs. Griggs assists Miss Pritchard. Judy listens, while Miss Walters argues Jervis into taking his medicine. Below—Carrie is astounded at the caperings of Judy and Sallie, but Mrs. Semple and Jimmie are merely amused.

LITTLE WEDDING SHOES

The troubles, but ultimate happy ending, of a little Dutch village were enacted for the student body by Dramatic League Sophomores. The play, "Little Wedding Shoes," was really a musical, with dances and songs a major part. Dirk, played by Bernadette Walsh, and Petronilla, played by Alice McGuane, caused all the trouble with their blighted romance. Sympathizing maids of the village are: Standing—Marie Senechal, Peggy Roultiffe, Rosemary Carberry, and Madonna Mannion. Seated—Leatrice Burns, Rosemary Hartigan, Juliana Schumann, Alila Jean Brankin, Betty Collins, Rosemary Shirley, and Veronica Markey.

Singers and dancers all, are: Standing—Mary Ann Harrington, Anna Mae Cassidy, Patsy Dalton, Roberta Walsh, Joan Neeson, Muriel Burke, Cecilia McKee, Marguerite McDonough, Mary Jane Krump, Norenne McNichols, Henriette Lewandowski, Dorothy Buchanan, Marion Zagar, June See, Virginia O'Connell, Rosemary Conlin, Anna Mae Shaefer, Irene Miliga, and Bernice Gregory. Center—Monica Morgan, Josephine DiSanto, and Florence Brophy.

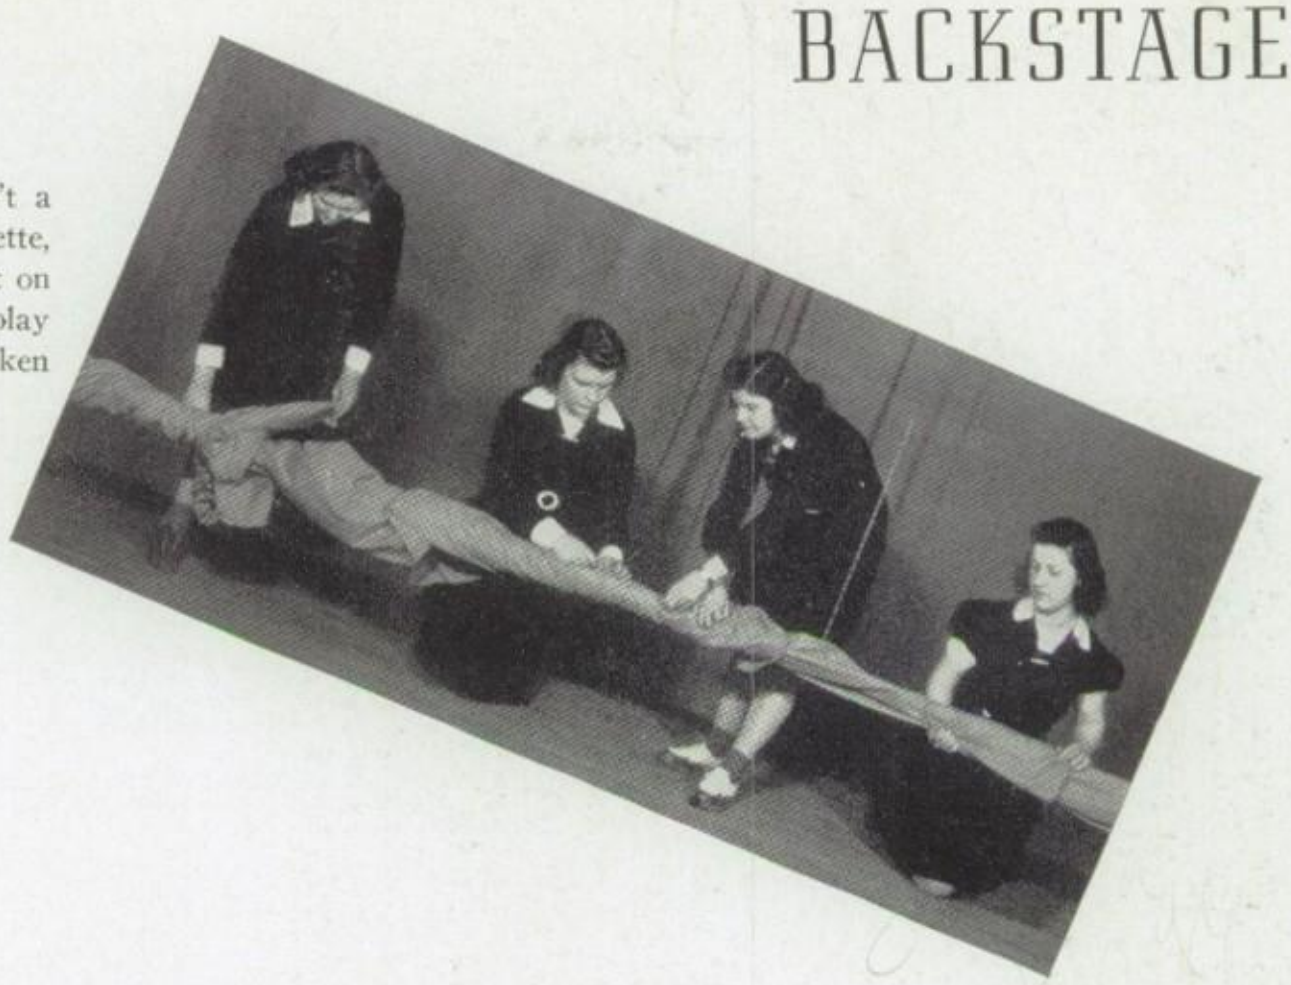
BACKSTAGE



Backstage difficulties haven't a chance when Mary Collette, Dolores, Rita, and Mary get on the job. The million pre-play problems are efficiently taken care of.

Juniors Geraldine Kelleher, Pat McMahon, Carolyn Regan, Eleanor Birmingham, Anne Cornyn and Theresa Hepp enacted the one-act play, "Swept Clean Off Her Feet" for the student body. Anne and Theresa are having a hard time keeping their secret from Eleanor.

Another Junior play, "Thursdays At Home," was given on the same program. Standing—Marion McNamara, Lois Grimes, Mary Ellen Bandy, Gertrude Kubovich, Nancy Mann, Winifred Johnson, Florence Tallman. Seated—Anne Duffin and Arthemise Hoeffner.

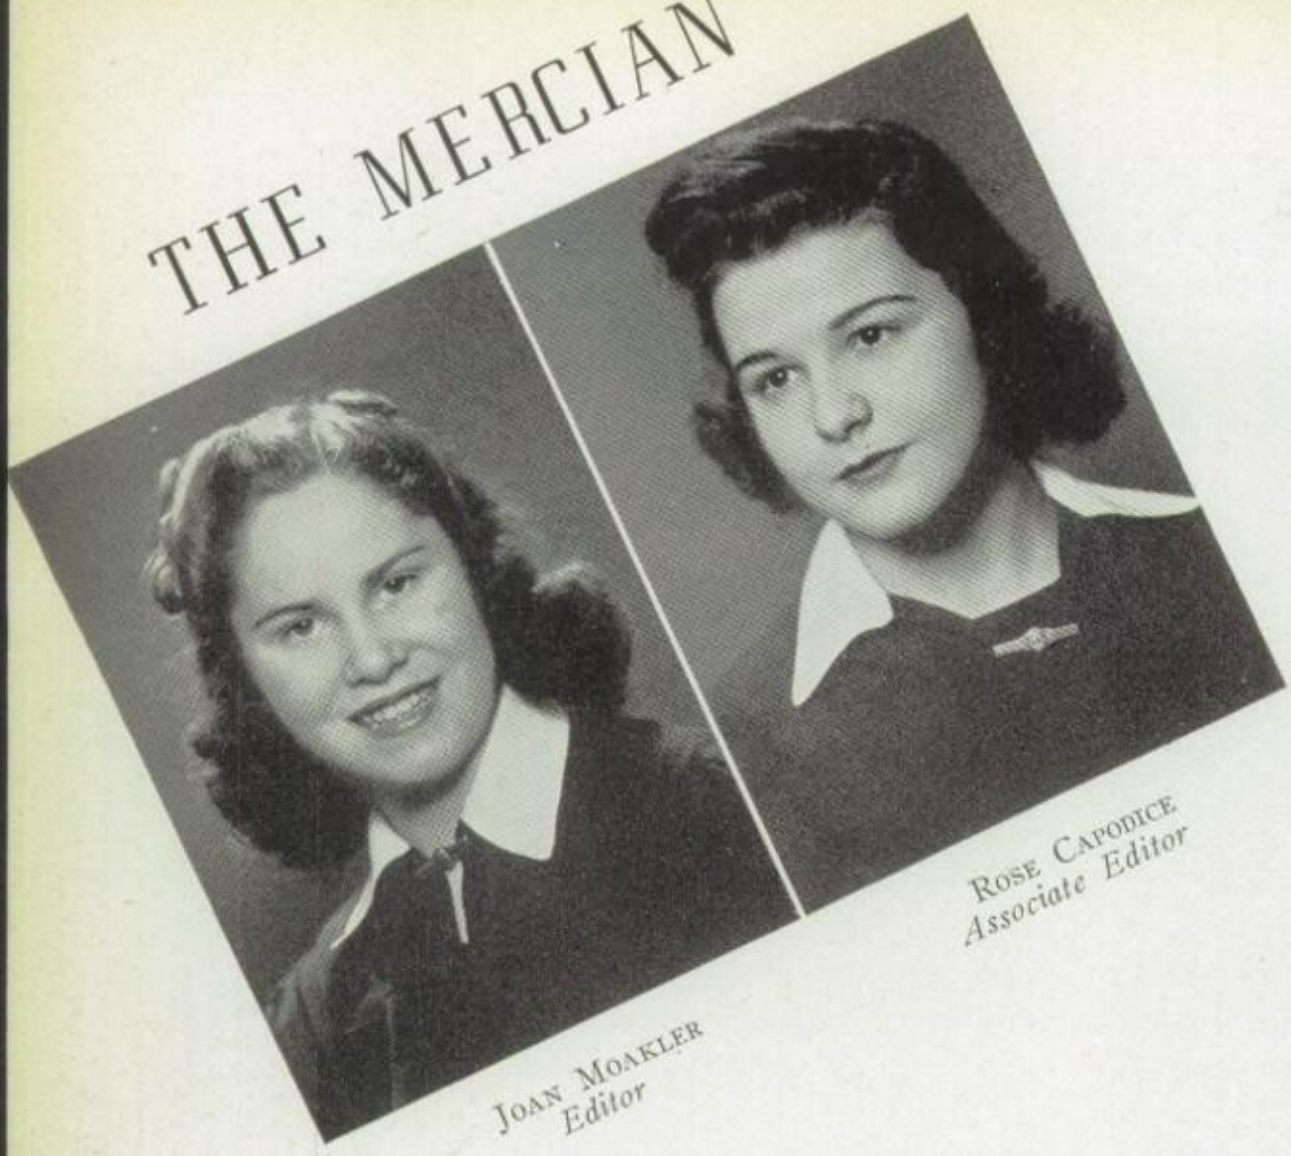
THE MERCIAN



Joan Moakler

Rose Capodice

Published by the senior class, the story of the year at Mercy is told in our yearbook, The Mercian, which is a member of the Catholic School Press Association, the Illinois State High School Press Guild and the Catholic School Editor's League. In 1933, '34, '35, '36, '37 and '38, the C.S.P.A. rated the publication All-Catholic; in 1928, '29, '30, '31, '32, '34, '35, '36, '37, '39 and '40 it was rated All-American by the N.S.P.A.

Every second Tuesday brings to Mercy girls their own Mercy-Hi Rays, the school paper. Published by senior editors and junior journalism classes, the Hi Rays is the official "clarion" of Mercy. It is also a member of the same press associations as the Mercian. The Hi Rays has maintained high ratings in the press associations, twice receiving All-Catholic honors.

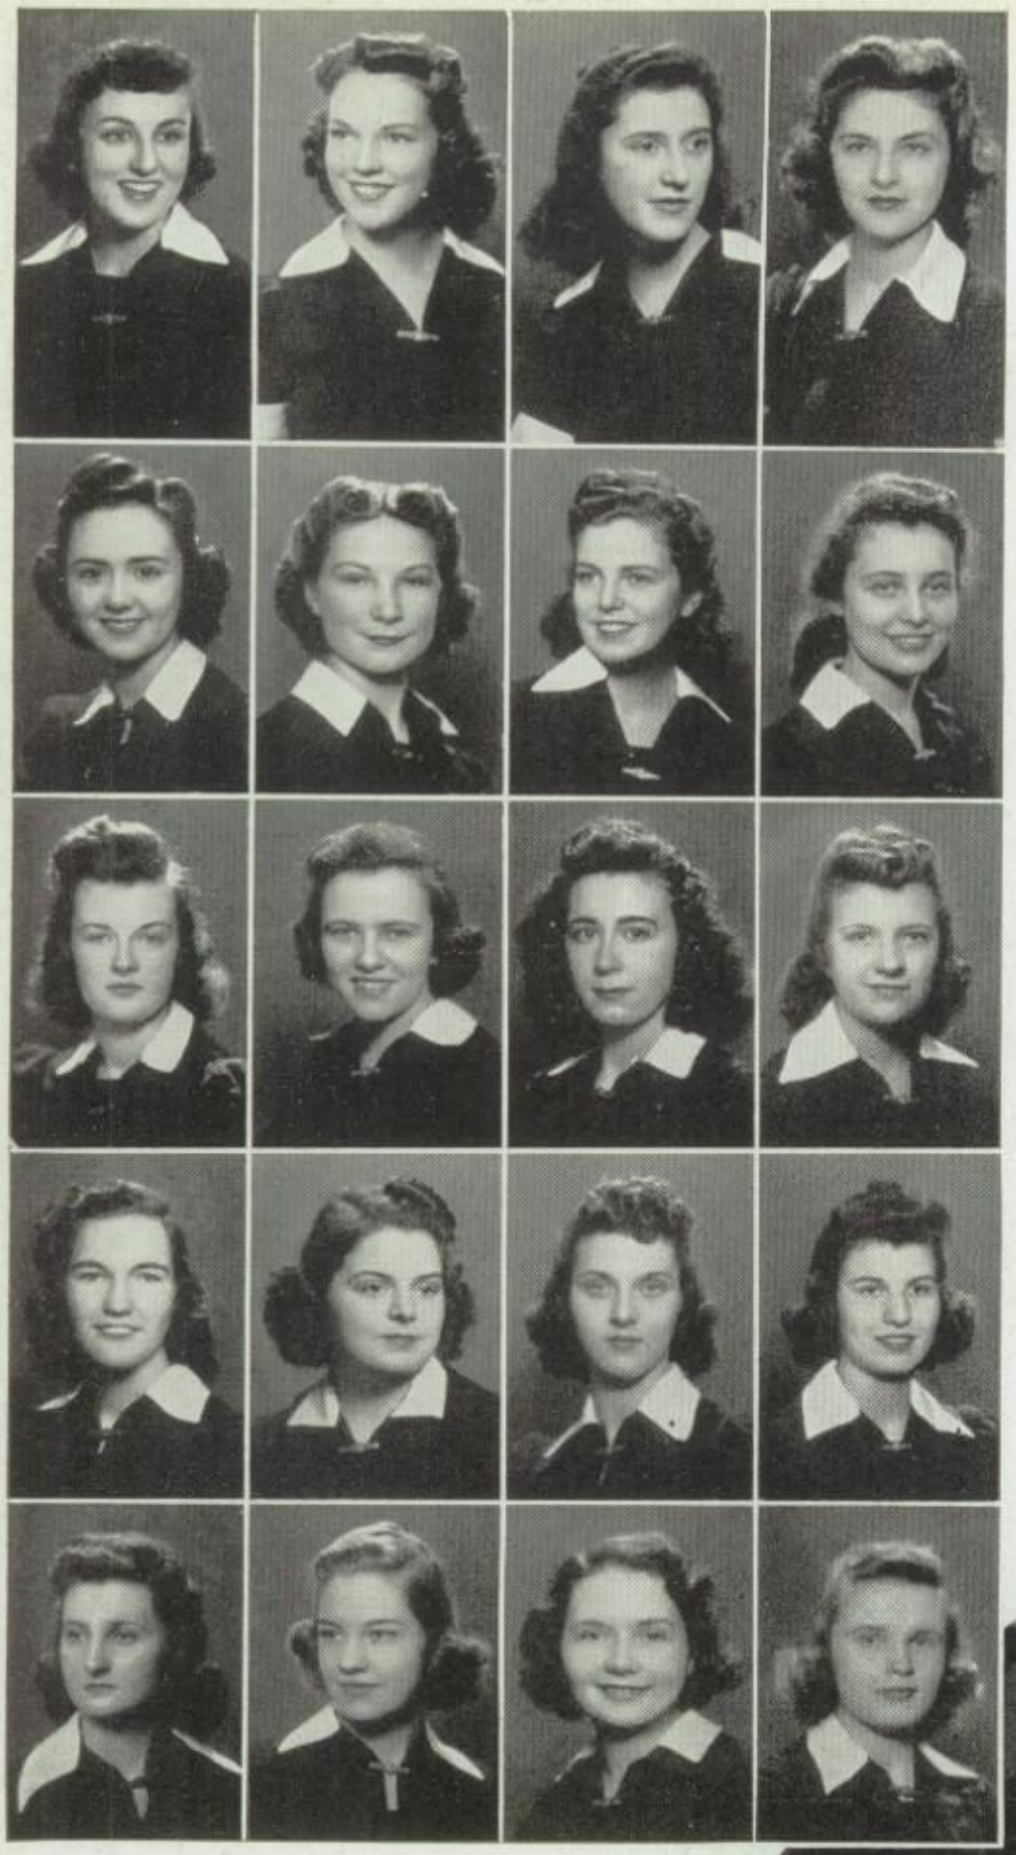
This year a new member was added to our growing publication family. The new addition was the Sodality daily bulletin, CATHOLIC ACT DAY BY DAY. Every day the bulletin carries the Sodality news and relates the progress of Catholic Action. Such a daily publication has never before been attempted at Mercy, but the bulletin has proved itself to be an overwhelming success. Not satisfied with its present popularity, CATHOLIC ACTION DAY BY DAY has set its goal for an individual copy to each and every Mercy girl!

The most distinguishing of honors ever bestowed upon any of Mercy's publications was the award "Book of the Year" given to the 1940 Mercian by the N.S.P.A. The yearbook earned this compliment because of its personality and newness. It is an honor given to only ten high school yearbooks of the country and was the only school of the state of Illinois to be so named.

The eternal question, "Which publication is the best, the Hi Rays, the Mercian or the Sodality bulletin?" will never be answered by heated discussions. But try to tell the editors that! Here Marg, Joan and Gertie fight it out.

REFLECTING '40-'41



Top Row—Constance McDonough, business manager; Eileen McGloin, assistant business manager; Isabel Jordan, assistant business manager; Annamae Keegan, art editor.

Editorial Staff—Helen Allen, Dorothea Baughman, Patricia Brodie, Ellenelaine Butler.

Bette Collins, Maureen Daly, Mary Dunne, Gertrude Farmer.

Rosalie FitzPatrick, Rosaleen Hertel, Geraldine King, Marie Loncar.

Mary Monica Malone, Mary Agnes O'Connell, Virginia O'Neil and Mary Sweeney.

Editors—Joan and Rose are doing some heavy thinking as to where to start first. The thinking led through dummy pages, rubber cement and razor blades, through hours with the camera man, the engraver, the printer, to another achievement. It is accomplished — the Mercian of 1941.

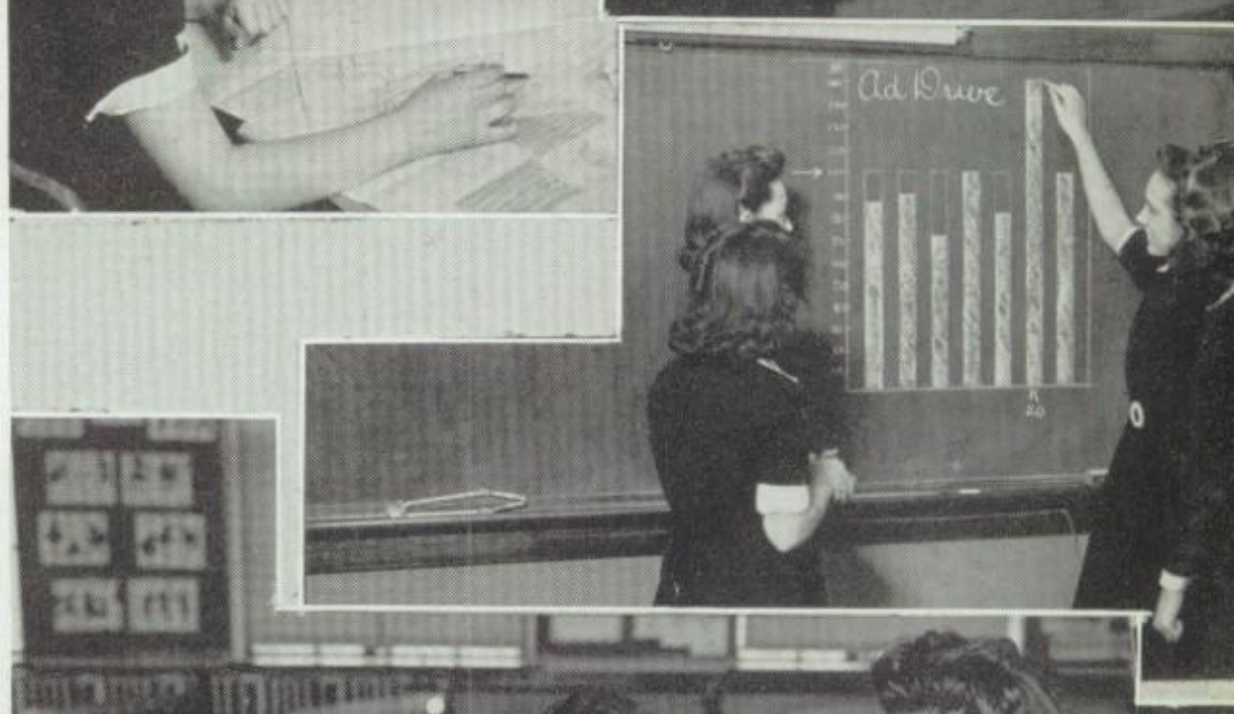
Connie, Isabel and Eileen, working hard with the ads, but seeming to enjoy it. The pages of patrons and ads at the end of the book tell the story of the work of this business staff. The good will and co-operation of the girls of every class canceled all worries of budget balance.

THE MERCIAN

Underclass pictures are mounted ever so carefully by Maureen, Patricia, Bette, Gerry and Mary Agnes.

Art editor Annamae Keegan gets a smiling approval of her work from Marie.

"What cover do you want?" Gertrude, Helen and Virginia compare sample covers for the right color. P. S. The brown won.



With that high quota to reach, everyone must do her share, and Room 20 had no slackers!

Dorothea and Mary try to express a girl's personality in twenty words, while Rosaleen sees that both character sketch and picture are correct in the dummy.

Check that! Mary Monica seriously pecks away, as Rosalie and Mary check and double check.

PRESS-ING TIME

When the staff members have completed their assignments and are homeward bound, editor "Marg" remains to check and double check their stories. If there are extra headlines to write, Marge writes them; if stories are incomplete, Marg completes them, and if there are "holes" in the paper, Marg writes a "filler." But it's an editor's job and she loves it!

Diligent reporters rack their brains for a "snappy way of saying it." Bernadette McNamara, Mary Riggenbach, Eileen O'Connor, Dorothy Styler and Mary Granberg are in the "racking" process.

Studying exchanges and enjoying the jokes are Frances Cummings, Rosemary Gaughan, Betty Ballard, Eileen Reynolds and Shirley Mae Simmons.

Left—Loretta Caron has a clever twist to her headline if it will ONLY fit! Mary Katherine Kent recounts the count.

We want no mistakes in the Hi Rays so Carolyn Regan, Jean Morman, Margery Dahm, Arthemise Hoeffner and Suzanne Gibbons concentrate diligently as they proof-read the galley sheets.

Eileen Sheridan, Anna Marie Dignan, and Gertrude Koehl ponder over their pages on makeup night. While the problems that confront them provoke stern looks, the finished products provoke much joy—such is the life of an associate editor.

Patience is a virtue to be practiced in the staff room where there is but one typewriter! Ruth ponders her copy as Mary Lou and Theresa attempt to practice that virtue.

OUR BI-WEEKLY

Our mailing list is taken care of the very day the paper reaches the school. In charge of circulation and the business affairs, Betty Lou and Ann Marie send out the Hi Rays, while Dorothy reads it.

Any place, anywhere, we stop to read the Hi Rays. Just a wall will do for Mary Anne and Dorothy as they scan the paper between classes.

AT A CONVENTION

Conventions! C.S.P.A., Milwaukee ! ! I.S.H.S.P.A., Urbana ! ! ! N.S.P.A., Cleveland ! ! ! ! Conventions ! ! ! ! !

Besides the fun of working on any of Mercy's publications, a staff writer has the unique pleasure of attending the conventions of the press organizations of which Mercy is a member. This year there were three—and all out of town. Mercy was well represented at each and every one of them. The Catholic School Press Association met in Milwaukee, the Illinois State High School Press Association in Urbana, and The National Scholastic Press Association in Cleveland, Ohio. The girls have found that there is nothing like a convention to fire them with zeal for the success of their publications. And always after one of these meetings it can be said—"A good time was had by all."

Sister Mary Charitina and Sister Mary Marina surprised the girls when they dropped in for a visit with the girls in their hotel room while the group was in Cleveland. Theresa Heneghan, Mary Agnes O'Connell, Ann Marie Callaghan, Mary Malone, and Joan Moakler welcomed them wholeheartedly.

THE TYPISTS

When the news is gathered for the bulletin, when it is written, then the finishing or completing touches must be made by these competent typists. Much credit is due these girls for they oftentimes remained after school to type the bulletin so that it would reach the rooms first thing in the morning. They assisted also with the typing for the Yearbook and newspaper. Standing: Norma Miles, Regina McKenzie, Marie Casella, Mary Breslin, Mary Cantwell, Evelyn Gilman, Ruth McMahon, Eileen McGloin, and Mary Kelly. Seated: Rose Concannon.

CATHOLIC ACTION DAY BY DAY

SODALITY BULLETIN

Lack of time does not stop co-editors, Gertie Mary and Mary Agnes, from gathering copy for the Sodality's daily bulletin, Catholic Action Day by Day. With no free periods, these girls meet at any convenient place—in this case, the steps, which from all appearances seems to be a delightful spot to compare notes. On the run they gather and write the day's news of Catholic Action and thereby keep the entire school aware of Sodality activities.

Above: Right—Five girls comprise the bulletin's typing staff. With copy complete, we see Lorraine begin the all-important job of making a stencil. Each day a different girl takes over the responsibility of the stencil typing so that . . . .

Below: Right—When Mary and Rose come next morning promptly at eight-thirty, without missing a day, everything is ready for the mimeograph duplicator. Rose runs the machine while Mary checks to see if everything is perfect, and before you know it . . . .

Betty, circulation manager, is merrily on her daily rounds to all the class rooms and offices. So—until the afternoon—their work is done.

OUR STUDENT COUNCIL

Between classes every day, Mercy's Student Council hushes our buzzing tongues and guides our wayward feet to keep Mercy's halls a pattern of order.

The members of the Student Council are too modest to admit it, but they are the lucky owners of the unabridged, unquestioned, and unamended privilege of coming into any class—late! Rain or shine, famine or plenty, the Student Council girls eat their lunches first and on every day of school only the Student Council possesses the privilege of Freedom of Speech in the halls, and their words will live forever: "Single file and silence, please." Sister Mary Aloyse is moderator.

The members are: Madeline Kiley, Grace Killeen, Dorothy Guba, Marilyn Schuberth, Geraldine Gleason, Mary Virginia Meade, Mary Alice McGrath, Maryellen Ryan, Anna Spatz, Madeline Gutrich, Lorraine Carlson, Delores Dolan, Mary Fitzgerald, Mary Foy, Mary Colette Kelly, Mary Basilla McGrath, Shirley Price, Betty Jane Van Horton, Betty Schafer, Ellen Anderson, Mary Burke, Mary Malone, Jeanne Leslie, Catherine Zeidler, Dolores Przybylinski, Loretta Molloy, Olga Ivanoff, Eileen Reynolds, Rose Ellen Concannon, Mary McNamara, Alvina Petrus, Jeanne Doyle, Joan Fovell, Wilma Holt, Pat Reilly, Alberta Budo, Mary Horvath, Irene Kiraly, Helen Becheley, Mary Ellen Bandy, Pat Fullam, Joan Leahy, Dorothy Styler, Gloria Walsh, Helen Tomzak, Joan Falls, Mary McCummiskey, Rita Kliefges, Jean Smith, Pat Blatzer, Alice McGuane, Rosemary Shirey, Jeanne Zimmer, Mary Lu Reilly, Helen Loftus, Rosalie Whalen, Mary O'Malley, Nancy Lee, Pat McGrane, Joan Neeson, Mary Jane Sacks, Marie Maibuecher, Rosemary Engeln, Dorothy Buchanan, Marian Zagar, Ruth Peterson, Henrietta Lewandowski, Louise Reddy, Betty Booth, Virginia Martin, Loretta Hearne, Marie Hagenauer, Catherine Tolt, Janet Janisch, Helen Weck, Rita Fitzmaurice, Juanita Mulcahy, Pat Concannon, La Verne Tynan, Jacqueline O'Hern, Jean Lyng, Cathy Carroll, Rosemary Blyth, Laura Lee Helzer, Marian Murphy, Theresa Schuman and Mary Hardiman.

As a reward for her faithfulness to her duty, Mary Malone receives the treasured gold Student Council pin from Sister Mary Aloyse. The officers of the Council, who proudly look on, are Loretta Molloy, vice president; Alvina Petrus, treasurer; Olga Ivanoff, social chairman; Marilyn Schuberth, president; and Mary Coletta Kelly, secretary.

Best wishes to Henrietta.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

"Honored for conspicuous service"!! It's not a West Point Commencement Announcement, but Sister Mary Aloyse awarding girls a pin of merit for their outstanding work on Student Council duty during the past month. It is really quite a task to maintain silence in the halls when 957 girls are changing classes, going to and from lunch, bumping trays in the cafeteria, but these girls not only do it every day but do it exceedingly well.

The following girls earned prizes for distinguished service:

Second row—Dorothy Peterson, Suzanne Meyering, Dorothy Buchanan, Rosemary Engeln, Theresa Schuman, Cathy Carroll and Betty Schafer.

CIVIC MINDED

Thanks to the constant efforts of the members of the Civic club, Mercy may boast of a school kept beautifully clean, for these girls do all they can to encourage care of the building and campus. During the year, various girls are honored for their earnest work and perseverance.

To manage the Civic club's affairs this year were elected: Mary Sullivan, president; Catherine Wagner, secretary; Dorothy Barclay, vice president; and Dorothy Burns, social chairman.

Grouped around the statue of Our Lady, to whom the club is dedicated, are the officers and board members of the Library club. Seated left to right, are: Olga Ivanoff, vice president; Mary Catherine McMahon, president; Patricia Fullam, secretary. Standing left to right, are: Eva Jane Haas, social chairman; Rita Brennan, board member; Catherine Altenbach, treasurer; and Catherine Tyler, board member. Absent from the picture are Regina Norton and Geraldine Woulfe, board members.

BOOK LOVERS

Real book lovers are these members of the club, Mary Sullivan, Catherine Altenbach, Marie Casella, Harriet Burns, Dolores Dolan, Wilma Holst, Ruth McMahon, Patricia Grahm, Imogene Smith, Cleon Barana, Joan Lynch, Dorothea Baughman, Ruth Dixon, Rita Brennan, Mary Catherine McMahon, Patricia Fullam, Olga Ivanoff, Eva Jane Haas, Eileen Longam, and Catherine Tyler. The girls of the Library club have assisted during the year with the cataloging and general order of the library, and also worked as a circulation staff. From Sister Mary Monica, librarian, they have had, through their experience, a real course in library work and many have loved it enough to choose it as a future vocation.

CHEMISTS—

The Chemistry club is the newest of clubs at Mercy. It took the auspicious name of $C_7H_5(NO_2)_3$ which means T.N.T., when translated for us laymen. Pictured here from left to right are: (first row top)—D. Styler (president), M. McNamara (vice president), R. Dixon, L. Kaufman, M. E. Bandy, P. O'Donnell, H. Tomczak. Second row—G. Walsh, R. Schultz, A. Petrus, M. Guinaugh, R. McMahon, L. LeBeau, M. V. Scherer, D. Scherer, P. McMahon, L. Grimes, G. Bruen, M. Reilly. Third row—C. Wellman, H. Madigan, R. Carney, M. Hoffman, S. N. Simmons, P. Graham, M. Cutter, R. O'Neil, M. Kaufman. Bottom row—P. Coates, F. Finucane, M. H. Condon, L. Caron (treasurer), M. Simmons, V. Harrington, J. Coon.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Smiles are justified when they mean achievement. These girls have just received gold pins for speed in typing. The lucky secretaries of the future are: Mary Kelly, Josephine Slattery, La Verne Conboy, Mary Duffy, Frances Clifford, Norma Miles, and Marie Casella.

MATH CLUB

Struggling with the intricacies of math for four years is no easy task. These students have braved the paths of higher mathematical knowledge and have earned membership in the honor Math club.

Standing—Maxine Gross, Colette Tittiger, Joyce Moody, Dolores Dolan, Mildred Fleming, Marion McNamara, Betty Raynor, Ruth Pollack, Elinor Hasik. Seated—Marjorie Pearson and Jean Morman.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Le Cercle Francais officers: Standing—Jacquelyn McNeilly, social hostess; Elaine Murphy, social chairman; Rosaleen Hertel, treasurer. Seated—Lillian Bass, vice-president; Betty Ballard, secretary; and Joyce Moody, president.

All French students are members of the French club. Correspondence with French students in foreign lands is the main activity of the club and helps to foster a keener interest in the language.

SOCIETAS LATINAS

Officers of Societas Latinas meet to plan one of the many successful Latin plays which depicts the life of a famous ancient Roman hero. To add to its prestige, membership is limited to third and fourth year Latin students.

FASHIONS IN REVIEW

The newest and sweetest of formals are the creations of LaVerne Haley and Mary Jane Conley.

It's smart to be able to make one's own clothes, to fashion one's own styles. So the girl of the Sewing club aims high, vieing with the best to plan grace and dash in her clothes. She starts on the simplest of garments and by the end of the year, is ready, through her own needlework, to appear at prom or picnic as the well-dressed sub-deb. She may be that too without draining Dad's pocketbook, for she can quote a new low in telling what her most dazzling formal costs. The culmination of her year's efforts is her appearance in Mercy's annual style revue, when she promenades across the stage before an admiring group of spectators, smartly modeling her creations.

The inevitable skirt and blouse becomes the more fashionable jumper and blouse. These stylish ladies are Mary Kelley, Egberta Arentz, Gerry Woulfe, Marguerite Manges, Mary Jane Hagenauer, Evelyn Fitzmaurice, and Rita Rudofski.

Balls and bats and darling outfits to match, have Ritamae Fenton, Gladys Albrecht, Elaine Earsman, Marion Cutler, Helen Marie Cotter, and Louise McMahon.

A pretty afternoon and pretty girls and pretty suits! Evelyn Fitzmaurice, LaVerne Haley, Rita McNally, Margaret Mary Rice, and Gerry LaMantia model their new suits.

Sewing club officers, Mary Jane Conley, president; Betty Jane Van Horton, secretary; Evelyn Fitzmaurice, vice president; and Dorothy Guba, treasurer, thumb through fashion books.

Right—More lovely dresses to rival the others! Rita McNally, Dorothy Guba, Josephine LaMantia, and Betty Jane Van Horton. Seated—Margaret Russell and Sally Barrett.

The grand finale of a gorgeous Military Ball! Mercy girls and Leo boys. Left to right: Betty Jane Van Horton and Michael Conway, Mary Jane Conley and John Hastings, Margaret Mary Rice and Bernard Duffy, Rita McNally and Raymond Geringer, Regina Norton and Kevin Wheeler; "Columbia," Betty Creighton; "Uncle Sam," William Loftus, Jr.; "Miss America," Mary Jane Kramer; Margaret Russell and Joseph Dilger, Betty Babrosky and Joseph Feeney, Catherine Duffy and George Duffy, Arthemise Mongeau and James Hickey, Rita Rudofski and John Gorman.

"Reviewers" in ensembles, that are a "must" for every wardrobe. Seated: Mary Jane Hagenauer, Sally Barrett, Josephine LaMantia, Virginia Pekofski, and Rita Mae Fenton. Standing: Egberta Arentz, Mary Kelly, Gerry LaMantia, Louise McMahon, Gladys Albrecht, and Marguerite Manges.

Frank J. Smith, Robert Schmit, Raymond Schmit, and Byron Battershell form a guard of honor for the "Queen of Fashion," Evelyn Fitzmaurice.

THE QUEEN

Cadets, lovely ladies, "Columbia" and "Uncle Sam" stand at attention for "Miss America," Mary Jane Kramer. The cadets are: John Gorman, Michael Conway, John Hastings, George Duffy, Raymond Geringer, Raymond Schmit, Kevin Wheeler, Robert Schmit, Frank J. Smith, Joseph Feeney, Byron Battershell, Joseph Dilger, James Hickey. Lovely ladies are: Rita Rudofski, Betty Jane VanHorton, Mary Jane Conley, Margaret Mary Rice, Mary Duffy, Rita McNally, Regina Marie Norton, LaVerne Haley, Evelyn Fitzmaurice, Betty Babrosky, Catherine Duffy, Dorothy Guba, Arthemise Mongeau, and Margaret Russell. "Columbia," Betty Creighton, and "Uncle Sam," William Loftus, Jr.

Leo cadets hoist swords to form a guard of honor for LaVerne Haley.

Mary Duffy smiles proudly as she and "Uncle Sam" are thus honored.

MERCY'S SPORTS

MISS SHIRLEY MAERZ

Miss Shirley Maerz, a graduate of Mercy of 1938, comes back to teach physical education. In her first year as gym teacher at Mercy, she has revised the regular routine of gym classes and made them periods of play as well as work.

The Mercy Athletic Association officers: Mary Sweeney, president; Jean Devereaux, secretary; Rita Meagher, vice-president; Eileen McGloin, treasurer.

IN ACTION

"Tiny" Styler, star of many a basketball game, halts all attempts of her opponents to make a basket, as the other juniors leap high in vain, at practice for Christian-Mercy game.

Look what's charging! It's the cheerleaders again really whoopin' it up at the Christian-Mercy game as the "Big Nine" narrowed out Christian 33-29.

Spring has come and once again the favorite American pastime, baseball, takes its place at Mercy's gym. Baseball is played indoors on cool days, but when it's sunny, the ball and bat are kept busy out-of-doors.

SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL TEAM

'Twas an unsuccessful season for Mercy's volleyball team, but the spirit of victory still echoes in our hearts—"We'll win the trophy back next year!" Nevertheless, the memories of exciting games and good sportsmanship has made another trademark in Mercy's athletic history. Lourdes, Christian and Mercy competed in the 1941 volleyball tournament with Lourdes winning the trophy.

The ball started bouncing early in November, when Mercy defeated Christian at Mercy. The second game at Christian finished with Christian victorious over Mercy; then Lourdes and Christian battled for points. Lourdes, the great hard-hitting team, took Mercy in two games; thus completing the six-game tournament.

THE SCHOOL TEAM

Right: The Sophomore Volleyball Tournament ended with Room 19 winning the trophy. Top row—Muriel Burke, Marilyn Feil, Virginia Hayden, student coach, Joan Ruddy, Norine McNichols. Middle—Laverne Fishback, Monica Morgan, Helen Matic, Marion Zagar. Front—Alice Barrett, Anna Mae Jenen, Roberta Walsh.

The upper-classmen basketball tournament is on! Juniors toss up at the practice as the seniors' eyes are fixed on every movement of the juniors. This was only a practice game, but practice makes perfect as the juniors soon proved.

BASKETBALL

The seniors stop practice for the big game to pose under the basket.

SENIORS

Reading clockwise, top—Marie Loncar, Bette Goonan, Jean Devereaux, Eileen McGloin, Jane Marren, Margie Smith, captain, and Rita Meagher.

FRESHMEN

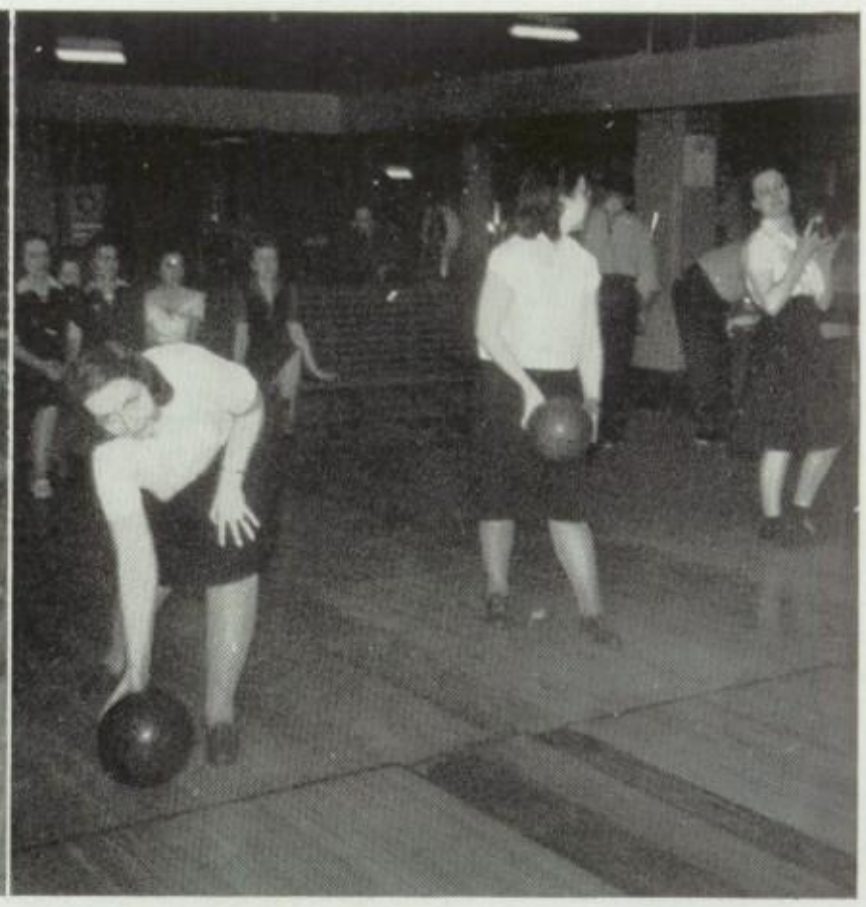
JUNIORS

Right—Juniors defeat the seniors in the tournament game. "Tiny" Styler, its captain, holds the ball high as the symbol of victory. The champs are Marjorie Reilly, Rita O'Laughlin, Dorothy Butler, Dorothy Styler, Gloria Walsh, Ruth Dixon, and Caroline Kaufman.



Dorothy Burns rolls one down the alley for a strike, as Gertrude Farmer watches the expert bowlers.

Virginia O'Neil, Dorothy Burns, and Ellenelaine Butler rest for a minute before they bowl 'em over.

BOWLING

Bowling is a brand new activity of the athletic association. The M.A.A. has a bowling league of Mercy's Juniors headed by Dorothy Butler, and the Seniors headed by Betty Jane Van Horton. The Sophs have organized a team, under Marguerite McDonough. Every Friday afternoon, the three teams bowl at Stevenson's. The captains keep the teams' scores as well as individual scores.

Miss Maerz promotes the military influence in a Freshie gym class at the command of "Dress right."

TIME OUT

Dancers sit one out at the Sport dance; meanwhile admiring the finery of Mercy's Easter parade.

Wherever the crowd gathers, you can be sure the photographer is not far away. Here as the medley by Charlie Cos ends, everyone stops to admire the lovely rainbow decorations.

The chaperons join the young folks watching Mercy's jitterbugs. Looks like the McGrane's stand in with the camera man.

Our president, Mary Sweeney, and Arkay Graham take the limelight as we come to the end of a perfect dance.

Mercy Federation, which is the union of alumnae from Mercy Colleges, Nurses Training Schools and High Schools, has its own program that consists of the Forum, the annual card party and the Homecoming. This year the card party was held at the Stevens Hotel on February 15. The Homecoming, at Mercy, was a real homecoming for many "old grads."

THE FORUM

Miss Margaret I. Maloney
Chairman

The Mercy Federation Forum of 1941 hit a new high with the number of crowds it attracted. The theme of the year, "The Catholic Theory of Government in America," was introduced by the Rt. Reverend Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, Ph. D., whose topic was "Sparks From the Anvil of War." The lecturer for November, Rev. William Boyd, S.T.L., spoke on "The Pope and Economic Democracy." The lecturer for December, Rev. James A. Magner, Ph. D., S.T.D., on "Mexico Today"; for January, Rev. Francis X. Talbot, S.J., on "The Catholic Within the State"; for February, Clarence E. Manion, A.M., P.H.M., J.D., on "Our Christian Liberty"; and for March, Emmet Lavery, Assistant Director of Theatre Research at Vassar College, on "Quo Vadis, 1940—An Inventory of Our Life and Times According to Cardinal Newman."

Alumnae President

Kathryn Weccard, recording secretary; Eileen McCarthy, financial secretary; Miriam Jung, chairman of the board; Marguerite McGlynn, social chairman; Kathleen Ryan, social co-chairman; Dorothy Crotty, treasurer; Catherine Donohue, historian; Dorothy Gardner Kelly, historian; Regina Doherty, historian; Ann Docherty, historian.

AT THE STEVENS

The Alumnae has taken on the enormous job of financing the cleaning and re-decorating of Mercy's auditorium. To facilitate matters, a chairman was appointed from each class and they met at a luncheon in the Stevens Hotel to discuss their plans. Seated around the table are chairmen; Margaret Coyle '31; Miriam Jung '31; Regina Walsh Garland '29; Geraldine Connell '35; Helen Rowan Perry '27; Anne Docherty '29; Katherine Weccard '34; Kay Ryan '34; Catherine Donohue '34; Eileen McCarthy '34; Margaret Reardon, president; Dorothy Crotty '35; Cele Quinn '32; Lavina Gleason '28; Joan Muldowney '36; Mary Rohrer Feehery '36; Alice Corkell '39; Bette Collins '41; Julia Leahy '40; Virginia Sullivan '38, and Mary Agnes Coleman '37.

Other chairmen not in the picture are Anne Wallace Casey '26; Norma Gieger '30, and Marion Diggins '34.

Setting a new record, Mercy Alumnae has written into Time a year of grand activity. Chief among these were the duo-Homecoming and Reception of the Class of 1941 program, the Alumnae Formal Dance, the Cooking School, and the above mentioned Re-decoration Drive.

The Alumnae membership rose to thirty-five hundred when the Class of 1941 was made part of it on the day of the Homecoming, November 10. Lee Williams' danceable rhythms at the Terrace Room of the Morrison hotel on January 25 entertained them at the formal Alumnae dance. Perhaps the most novel feature of their year's program was the cooking school conducted by Elizabeth Lynahan of the People's Gas Company. February 24 found a thousand Alumnae and friends learning, while enjoying, the kitchen's trickery minus its drudgery. To pencil in that artistic finishing touch, they have decided to re-decorate our auditorium in which we all have had so many wonderful hours. It is, perhaps, because of these many delightful projects that we Seniors of 1941 are glad to be a part of such a fine organization as the Mercy Alumnae.

Seated—Mrs. Bart E. McDonough, senior vice president; Mrs. Lester J. Rodney, recording secretary; Mrs. James W. Grogran, president; Mrs. James E. Kehoe, vice president; and Mrs. Thomas Killeen, financial secretary. Standing—Mrs. William F. Kent, Junior vice president; Mrs. Joseph P. Brodie, Mrs. Michael J. Walsh, Mrs. John J. Moran, Mrs. C. W. Swatzel, Mrs. Killacky, Mrs. John P. McCann, board of directors; and Mrs. James E. Sacks, sophomore vice president.

MOTHERS' CLUB

Again, the Mercy Mothers' club has realized its aim: to help Mercy and its Sisters by financial aid and by keeping up a spirit of friendship and good will among the sisters, mothers, and students. The successful program this year included the monthly business and monthly social meetings, the January Carnival, the May Card Party, various interesting tours, and the Mothers' Day Mass.

Editor's mother or not, Mrs. John Moakler has to pay—and does so cheerfully for her tickets.

Sister Mary Athanasius gives a smiling wish of success to three members of the card party committee.

OFFICERS

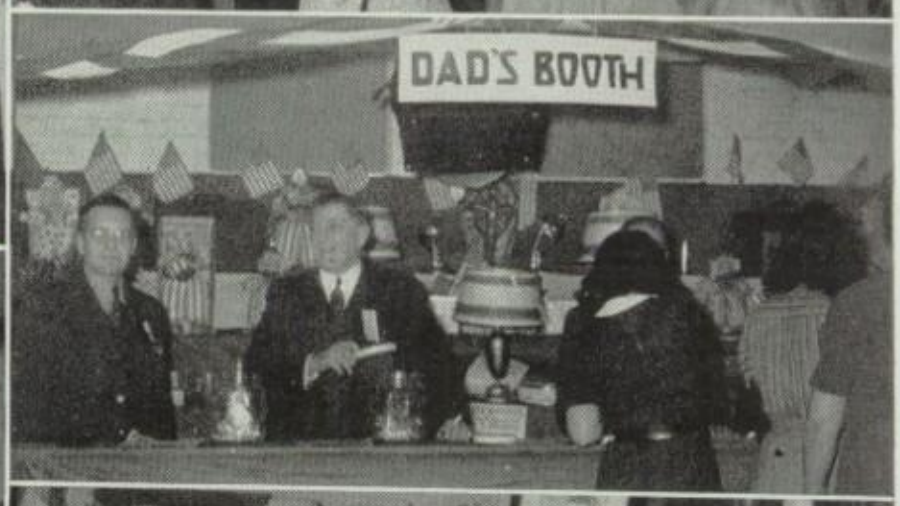
Seated—Charles J. Conley, recording secretary; James E. Kehoe, senior vice president; William Lyke, president; Michael Kenny, alumnae vice president; and Joseph P. Brodie, financial secretary. Standing — Thomas Routliff, John M. Krump, James E. Sacks, John Dieterle, Andrew Tumpane, James Collins, and Herman J. Biehl, directors. Not in picture — Loren Schmidt, junior vice president; Alvin C. Feil, sophomore vice president; Jeremiah Sheehan, freshman vice president; John McLaughlin, treasurer; J. P. Green, ways and means committee.

DADS' CLUB

Though the Dads' club has, as yet, not celebrated even its first birthday, it has helped us to make many of our celebrations a success. The "pops" have cooperated with all that means Mercy and, by working for the same end, have become acquainted with all the other "pops." Lively meetings and successful social doings put the club on record as having a banner year.

We wonder what tale of old Ireland was being told at the Dads' Irish Night Program that did so completely absorb the attention of Mr. Brodie, Mr. Conley, Father Doherty and Mr. Lyke. Even the photographer was not able to detract their interest from the entertainment.

Our Moms, as guests of our Dads, spent a night at our school with pleasure, apparently enjoying the program. As a mixer, the evening was proclaimed by all—a jolly opportunity.



THE CARNIVAL

M-m-m-m!! turkey, with all the trimmings! We can't think of a nicer way to start a day of carnival fun than sitting down to a luscious turkey dinner. Ticket sellers take time out to school receipts. The freshman booth attracts customers, but not any more than the sophomore of the new Dads' booths! Everyone tries his luck, chances on everything! Alfrieda Wagner, '39, was the lucky winner of the automobile raffled off annually.

THE CARD PARTY

This was the night that Mrs. Kent and her corps of helpers went home smiling. As early as eight o'clock, guests were pouring in, actually crowding the spacious lobby.

After the gymnasium was filled, room after room was opened. Two typing rooms, a science lab, the cafeteria, and the long corridors accommodated the hundreds. Finally an SOS was sent out, and tables and chairs arrived for the basement, where the last of the guests found places to play.

Despite the great number present, everything went on smoothly and sociably, so that children, members of the Mothers' club, and guests all went home a little happier for the successful and jolly party among old and new friends.

MARY'S DAY

Our Mothers, too, have set aside their special day for Mary. Every year they offer a Mass and Communion in the chapel to celebrate Mary's day, this year, Saturday, May 10.

"Caught"—coming in to breakfast together—the "new" and the "old." Mrs. Routliffe, just elected to be president, was introduced on this occasion by the retiring president, Mrs. Grogan.

Father Doherty, the celebrant of the Mothers' Mass, leads the list of speakers at the breakfast, and, in his own lovable way, enlivens the moment.

MERCY ON THE GRIDIRON

The kickoff of the campaign for another annual football game sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy—representatives from Mercy high school and grammar schools start spreading the news of the Leo-Rita game.

Bette, Senior Class president, Theresa, Sodality prefect, and Mary Agnes, Cisca treasurer, present Archbishop Stritch with the coveted box seats on the fifty yard line.

"To the victors belong the" gold football trophy. Sister Mary Ricardo presents Leo's athletic director, Brother Hamill, and the winning team's captain, "Skipp" Carroll, with the award for another victory.

Below—With the world at their feet—or at least Washington, D. C.—Cleon, Anna Mae, Miriam, Mary, and Grace make plans for the trip they earned by selling record numbers of football and bazaar tickets.
